SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Today's readings anticipate the feast of Pentecost, which we will celebrate two weeks from now. Peter and John join Phillip in Samaria to make sure that the Samaritans received the Holy Spirit, just as they had in Jerusalem. In the Gospel Jesus promises his disciples that they will receive the Holy Spirit, who will be another Advocate after his own return to the Father. Listening to today's readings, let us be aware of the Holy Spirit's influence in our lives.

When is Ascension Celebrated?

(Father Reginald Martin)

The feast of the Ascension celebrates the completion of Christ's mission on earth and his entry into heaven. The Church's Code of Canon Law includes the ascension of Jesus among the solemn feast days to be observed by Latin-rite Catholics throughout the universal Church. The text also remarks, "The conference of bishops can abolish certain holy days of obligation or transfer them to a Sunday with the prior approval of the Apostolic See" (Canon 1246.2).

In many places, as we have seen, the Ascension has been transferred to Sunday, for two reasons. First, holy days are to be observed with the same regard as Sundays. The Catechism of the Catholic Church notes, "On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are to refrain from engaging in work or activities that hinder the worship owed to God... and [partake in] the appropriate relaxation of mind and body" (No. 2185). This is often impossible on weekdays, so moving the feast to a Sunday makes a great deal of sense.

Some will ask why the Church does not maintain the feast of the Ascension on Thursday but remove the obligation to attend Mass that day. This leads to the second reason for moving the feast. Doing so allows those who cannot attend Mass on Thursday to share an important, common prayer experience.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there And unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Prayer in Time of the Coronavirus

Comfort us, O Lord, for we are like your disciples on the storm-tossed seas, unsettled by what lies ahead. We turn to You, our Healer and Guide, to still our hearts in our time of need and hear our prayer:

Heal those who are sick with the coronavirus and protect the elderly and most vulnerable. Give strength to all who tend to our health and wisdom to researchers who work toward a cure.

Open our eyes and hearts, as you did during Hurricane Harvey, that we may look beyond our immediate needs to care for others who need help. Through the Holy Spirit, guide our leaders to make wise decisions for the welfare of all the people they serve. Grant eternal rest to those who have died from the virus.

May Mary, Our Mother, who has heard our pleas in the storms of our lives, intercede to her Son, that we may find healing and a prompt end to this illness.

Mary, Star of the Sea, pray for us. Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior, heal us.

Amen

Stewardship Reflection

That we recognize that things don't always go the way we plan and God has a better plan in store for us. "For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be God's will, than for doing evil." 1 Peter 3:17 The old line says "if you want to make God laugh, tell him your plans." Many of us are diligent in our planning and making sure things are progressing smoothly. Then disaster strikes, we don't get the result that was intended or an unforeseen problem arises. Many times we may respond negatively and ask, "Why me? I did everything right!" Here's the thing – adversity humbles us and reminds us of our dependence on God and not on our own self-reliance. Rest assured, God has a better plan in store for you.

During this time of social distancing, St. Francis Xavier depends on online donations to continue our ministry. We prayerfully invite you to sign up for eGiving from your computer, smartphone or tablet and set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift. Sign up today by visiting www.faith.direct.net/TX632, or text 'Enroll' to 281-949-7600.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 17, 2020

[Jesus said to His disciples:]

“If you love Me,
you will keep My commandments”

John 14:15

Show love at all times, and if necessary, use words.

I never heard my father tell my mother that he loved her. I can't even remember hearing my father saying to me, "son, I love you" or "Mike I love you." Did he love my mother and I? He unequivocally loved both of us. How could I tell, you may ask? He loved us by his actions. He was a quiet man; he wouldn't raise his voice. I never heard him argue with Mom; neither did I witness any abuse or disrespect. I never heard him use profanity. He worked hard with his hands in all kind of weather for the City of Houston (Street and Bridge Division). Mom worked also as a Nurse-aid, but the bulk of the income came from my father. He didn't "run" the streets. He was in bed every night (including weekends) between 8:30 and 9:00 PM. On occasions I would see him sitting in the bathroom reading his bible-before he left for work at 6:00 AM. Our utilities were never turned off and our small two-bedroom home was always comfortable, regardless to the season of the year. My father was a good man and an excellent provider.

In the Gospel readings [John 14:15-21], Jesus clearly tells His disciples, how they are to love Him. Jesus said, "If you love Me, you will keep My commandments." (John 14:15) As Christians, we are to demonstrate our love for Christ, by keeping His commandments. Our love for Christ is to be seen in our actions.

Jesus said in a prior chapter of John's Gospel, "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you...." John 13:34

The 10 Commandments (Exodus 20 & Deut. 5) can be divided into two sections. The first three Commandments are about loving God.

It's our vertical relationship. The last seven commandments are about loving neighbor. It's our horizontal relationship.

Our love for God and neighbor should be full of good actions. Words are so cheap and meaningless if they are not followed by right actions. The Lord said it this way: "These people come near to me with their mouth and honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me." Isaiah 29:13

My parents were married on May 9, 1957. I was born two years later. On May 9th of this year, I told my Mom-that it was her anniversary. (My dad died of cancer in 1982, after 25 years of marriage to my Mom--she never remarried.) This year my 94 year old Mother couldn't remember his name.

She asked, "what was his name?" I told her. She repeated, "Victor Jenkins". I asked her, "do you remember anything about him?" She began to name the acts of love that I listed at the beginning of this reflection. She couldn't remember his name, but she could remember the love that he showed her for 25 years.

I only have one large picture of my dad. He's in his US Naval uniform--taken in the 1940s.

This week I looked at his picture and, I thanked my father for loving Mom and I— with actions and not necessarily with words. Dad, may you continue to rest in peace.
