THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel, five wise virgins bring extra oil for their lamps so that they will remain burning well into the night, while five foolish virgins, having neglected to bring more oil, carry lamps that flicker out. The wisdom that the five foolish ones disregard was available to all who desired it, resplendent and unfading. Let us use that wisdom now as we listen to the word of God, considering what we can do to brighten the path to God's kingdom.

to add the names of your loved ones who died from Nov 1, 2019 to Oct 31, 2020, to be remembered throughout the month of November.

Stewardship Reflection

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Matthew 25:13 Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. Don't delay. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

THIS WEEKEND'S SECOND COLLECTION

The Collection for Retired Priests is conducted annually in November. The purpose is to better fund the Archdiocesan Pension Plan for our retired Priests. This Second Collection will further enhance the Archdiocesan Priest and the Chancery. Thank you for your support of our retired Priests.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (Cycle A)

November 8, 2020

[Jesus said] "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Matthew 25:13

How do you stay awake and be prepared to meet the Lord?

Years ago I was invited to do a revival in Beaumont Texas. My Mom rode with me from our home in Pearland to Beaumont during the revival. Because we didn't stay at the church rectory; I drove 188 miles round trip (per day) for 5 straight days. As I was driving home on the final night of the revival, I fell asleep at the wheel between Winnie and Anahuac on I-10 west. As my vehicle drifted to the right of the highway, I was awoken by a loud thumping sound! I was able to steer my SUV back on the road. Mom who had been sleeping since we left Beaumont-never woke up. What was the loud thumping sound? My tires had rolled over rumble or alert strips. These deliberately placed grooves on the side or center of the highway alert drivers that they are drifting off of the road.

I call the account of the 10 Virgins (in today's Gospel) a Rumble parable. Jesus used this parable to alert the listeners that they maybe drifting off the road of their faith. Just as the rumble strips woke me up on I-10, Jesus wanted His followers to wake up and be ready to receive Him (the Bridegroom). Five of the virgins were wise because they were prepared to meet the Bridegroom, and five were foolish because they were not prepared to meet the Bridegroom. How can we stay awake and be prepared to meet the Lord at our death?

1. Realize that earth is not our permanent home, and that we are only here for a few days. Hebrews 13:14 (NLT) says, "For this world is not our permanent home; we are looking forward to a home yet to come." Job 14:1 says, "Man who is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble." We are only on this earth for a few days, especially when its compared to eternity. Three score years and ten is 70 years, but only 25,500 days. If you live to 80 years-that's 29,200 days.

We are to keep in mind that our existence on earth is very brief. James 4:14 says our life is but a "mist" or vapor. We appear for a little while, then we are gone.

2. Get your house in order. Make sure your business affairs have been handled and addressed. Do you have a will? Are your beneficiaries current on legal documents? Families become so burden when a deceased member doesn't have their affairs in order. Jesus made sure His mother was taken care of before He died (Jn. 19:26-27). Are your relational affairs in order with people and God? Have you told the people you have hurt and offended, "I am sorry, please forgive me"? Have you placed your soul under God's protection? Jesus commended [entrusted] His Spirit to His Heavenly Father, before He died (Luke 23:46).

3. Be aware of who is waiting for you at the end of the journey. A man was on a long train trip. He was becoming very tired and weary. The train had already went through valleys and hills and still had not reached its destination. The frustrated traveler looked across the aisle and noticed a man who was smiling and looking out the window and enjoying the train ride. The fatigued man said to the smiling traveler, "you and I got on this train at the same time." "It is an extremely long train ride and I'm so tired, but you are smiling." "Why are you so happy?" The smiling man answered, "When this train pulls into the station, my father whom I have never met, promised that he would be waiting for me at the train station, and I am excited to meet him." As Christians we are to know that at the end of this earthly journey, our Heavenly Father will be waiting for us!
