OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

On this final Sunday of the liturgical year the readings concern the end of time and Christ's role as king and judge. Before Jesus spoke to his disciples about separating sheep from goats, Ezekiel prophesied about the sheep God tends and then judges. Paul explained how at the end of time all will be brought to life and death will be destroyed. Finally, we hear Matthew's account of the Last Judgement. As we listen, let us ask ourselves if we can see the face of Jesus in those in need and pray for the grace to respond.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

You Did It For Me

Happy Christ the King Sunday! Today we end another Church year with the feast of Christ the King. For weeks Jesus has been teaching us in parables. This last Sunday of the year he does not give us a parable but a scenario, the scene of our last judgement.

The scene Jesus paints today is so simple. There is not much to ponder over theologically. There is nothing to debate about...like which commandment is the greatest. Jesus' scene of judgement is based on one norm only, practical love of others and loving service to others. St. John of the Cross wrote, "In the evening of life we shall be examined in love." In other words, we shall not be examined on personal status or accomplishments, but on love, our love for others in need of material and spiritual help.

We probably wish our judgement would be based on more than that. If we could rewrite this scene, we would probably include all the masses we have participated in, all the prayers we have said, and all the spiritual exercises we have been so faithful to for years. Don't these things count, Lord?

I imagine Jesus would say, "All your masses and prayers are good, but they are not the norm for your judgement. They are means to an end." They are meant to make us more loving people and that remains the only norm for our judgement. "In the evening of life, we shall be examined in love"

Brothers and sisters, it's in our love that we take action. It's in our love that we do 'works of mercy'.

When the world ends, we are told that God is going to focus on one thing: How did we care for the poor, the sick, the suffering? Nothing else will matter. Just how we treated those who Jesus called "the least" among us.

Today's gospel from Matthew, about the day of judgement, has something comparable to the last two gospels we've heard the past two Sundays. The parable of the 10 bridesmaids and the parable of the talents.

They are not stories about doing good or doing evil...no, it's more subtle than that. They are stories doing good as opposed to doing nothing.

Doing good verses doing nothing.

So you may wonder, Deacon Darryl, what do you mean?

If you look at the scriptures, in the parable about the bridesmaids at the wedding feast, there 5 bridesmaids who brought oil with them and the other 5 bridesmaids didn't. The 5 bridesmaids, who didn't have oil, did nothing.

In the parable about the servants with the talents, the 3rd servant didn't squander the money given to him, he buried it. He did nothing. He didn't invest it. That's why Jesus calls him "You wicked, lazy servant!"

So in today's gospel, it's the same paradox of doing good versus doing nothing. It was those on the shepherd's left (the sheep) who did good works, who took action. They fed the hungry, gave drink to the thirsty, welcomed the stranger, clothed the naked, cared for the ill, and visited those in prison.

It was those on the right (the goats) who did nothing. They did not feed the hungry, did not give drink to the thirsty, did not welcome the stranger, did not clothe the naked, did not care for the ill, and did not visit those in prison. They did nothing. They did not serve Jesus because of their indifference.

It's just like the parable of the Good Samaritan. If you remember, it was the Jewish priest and a Levite who passed by and avoided the man who was stripped of his clothing, beaten, and left half dead on the side of the road. They were indifferent. They didn't do evil; they just did nothing.

The goats on the right, the Jewish priest, and the Levite did not love and serve Jesus because they did not do for the "least ones". And Jesus says, "and these will go off to eternal punishment."

This reminds me of Mother Teresa who always told her sisters to remember the "Gospel on Five Fingers." She would quote Jesus' words, "You did it for me", as she held up each finger of her hand. These are the words from Matthew's gospel today. As you know, Mother Teresa lived her life this way, wholeheartedly believing that each person she served was Jesus himself. She tirelessly served out of her love.

Brothers and sisters, as we celebrate the feast of Christ the King, let us serve Christ in His kingdom. We serve Him in His kingdom when we serve those in need. We want to be the sheep on the left.

Will we do good or do nothing?

We are in the King's court when we work for the relief of the deprived, the oppressed, and the outcast.

Which kingdom will you serve...today and for eternity? The world which passes away? Or God's kingdom which lasts for all time?

Catholic Schools Parent Survey – 6th Grade and Above

The Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston is currently developing plans for a technical secondary education option for students by looking at the feasibility of a Catholic Career-Technical High School or CCTHS. The Development Committee of the CCTHS Advisory Board has planned an initial curriculum offering based on 10-year job projections for high-wage, high-demand careers within the Houston metroplex, as well as throughout the country. Our goal is to provide a truly unique, Catholic centered, technical high school education to students who may be looking to develop skills that will allow them to enter the workforce directly out of high school or move on to the college experience of their choice.

Your input will help us to better evaluate curriculum offerings and potential attendance in the new high school. Please take a few minutes to complete our Interest Survey by clicking the link below.
