FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

KEEP WATCH.

MARK 13:34

NIV

Today's readings remind us that waiting for the Lord is not a passive exercise. Isaiah prays that God "might meet us doing right," rejecting our sinful ways. Jesus warns his disciples that they must keep watch because we don't want to be asleep when we should be ready to receive him. Paul assures the Corinthians that they "are not lacking in any spiritual gift" as they wait. Let the word of God inspire us to prepare our hearts for his arrival.

RCIA

What is the RCIA Rite of Welcoming?

This weekend's milestone in RCIA, the Rite of Welcoming, is for inquirers who are ready to publicly declare their intention to continue their journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. At this Rite, they are asked if they are ready to listen to the apostles' instruction, gather with the worshipping community in prayer, and join that community in the love and service of others. They are signed with the Cross to show that they belong to Christ.

Parish Christmas Party!

St. Francis Xavier Annual Christmas Party will be held on Sunday, December 6, 2020 after the 10:00am Mass. The format will be scaled down this year. There will be limited eat-in dining. We encourage parishioners to take-out dinners as much as possible.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor (pronounced: "sucker") is a Roman Catholic title of the Blessed Virgin Mary associated with a wooden devotional image of the Madonna and Child enshrined in New Orleans, LA. The image is closely associated with Mother Saint Michel, the Superior of the New Orleans Ursulines. A terrible fire ravaged the city in 1812, and the wind was rapidly driving it in the direction of the convent of the Ursulines. One of the nuns, Sister St. Anthony, placed a small replica of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in her window that faced the approaching fire, while Mother St. Michel prayed aloud, asking Our Lady for help. Immediately the wind changed the direction of the flames. Mary's help has been sought from the shrine ever since during the threat of hurricanes.

The Young Adults would like to thank everyone, who donated items on November 21, 2020 for the Honduras Relief Fund.

We would also, like to thank, the Junior Daughters and Junior Knights who worked the drive:

Jr Supreme Lady-Kennedy Wiltz, Ct 139

Jr Grand Lady-Lorianna Eaglin, Ct 138

Jr Knight-Charles Guerrero, Branch 138

Our next drive-by drop-off will take place at St. Francis Xavier on December 6, 2020 from 9am-2pm.

Toiletries and non-perishable items can also be dropped off in the box in the vestibule of the church and the Harris Center Lobby. For monetary donations, go to: www.sfxhouston.com and click on the Honduras Hurricane Eta Relief Fund or make your check payable to St. Francis Xavier Church. Please specify "Honduras Hurricane Relief" in the memo.

Stewardship Reflection

Take heed, watch and pray; for you do not know when the time will come. Mark 13:33 We all take things for granted. In particular, we take time for granted. We make our lives too busy. We plan our time, our days, weeks, months, even years in advance. Remember, our time on earth is a gift. None of us knows how long we will be here. Start today and begin thanking God for each and every day. Take time in silence, every day, and listen to how God is calling you right now to help build His kingdom on earth.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Stay Awake, Be Ready, For Something Wonderful Is About To Happen

The Church year has ended, and a new one has begun. The political and social atmosphere in which we are ushering this new Church year is all but exciting. There is tension in our society because the transfer of political power in the country is all but smooth. The outgoing president does not seem to be able to humble himself to accept defeat and gracefully exit. This has highlighted the political and social divide among the groups that make up our society and even our families. Even our religious leadership seems inept to guide our social and religious compasses. According to the Associate Press report published by David Cary on November 18, 2020, the Catholic leadership is divided into two groups over the abortion stance, those who support Donald Trump and those who are in favor of Joe Biden. Those who are regarded as conservatives versus the liberals. We are murmuring among ourselves and crying for someone to lead us. The moral issue of abortion has now been personalized: those who support Donald Trump, a non-practicing Christian and Joe Biden, a practicing Catholic who, because of his support of the law of the land, is disliked by some “good” Catholics. Some priests have refused Joe Biden the communion sacrament.

It is in such milieu of uncertainties and disappointments that today’s scripture reading originally belonged. The Babylonians had destroyed Jerusalem and its temple in 586 BC and forced a large group of Israelites into exile. There they stayed for 50 years until the Persians conquered Babylon and permitted the captives to return to their native lands.

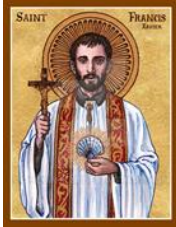

The return which should have been a welcoming and joyful occasion rather created a problem. Like our world today instead of joyfully preparing ourselves for the coming of Christ, anxiety and the fear of uncertainties have crippled us. With the political uncertainties, COVID-19, racial unrest, economic uncertainties, many may choose to give up. As Isaiah prophesied about the return, many Jews chose to remain in exile because those who first went to Jerusalem sent back word that all is not great at the home front. It was better to live in exile than to come home to completely rebuild the native land. They had lost hope.

If we liken what was happening in Jerusalem during the reconstruction after exile to what is happening in our country today, then we can picture, as Carol Stuhlmueller says in the New Biblical Commentary, someone standing in the middle of Jerusalem’s destroyed temple praying the verses of our first reading

Some of us have resolved that the challenges of our society are not going to change and so we have to accept the status quo. Many have a deep desire to see change and a better hope for our future where all parties will work together for our common good. For us, we hear Isaiah and Jesus telling us to keep hope alive. But we must first commit ourselves to building or rebuilding our relationship and trust with God. This new relationship with God is the answer to our quest. We shall see the face of God who will “deliver us from our guilt”. According to the prophet and Christ, we must first make a commitment to become the people of God.

Even during these uncertainties, Paul cautions us against being idle or passive. It is easy to justify why we should accept things as they are. He tells us that Jesus will hold each of us accountable. He joins the Prophet and Jesus to tell us to be watchful and be ready as we call on God to come down. Just as Isaiah’s words became realized, we too will experience the good news: new life and fresh hope for a tired and anxious world. This is the period where we can pierce the dark and find hope when mere optimism is not enough. A time to interpret breakdown as breakthrough and hear bad news as a chance to show compassion. A period to accompany others as they search for God in suffering. Let us, therefore, not fall asleep but watch and pray. God will appear at any time.
