THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

THE ROAD TO EMMAUS

Our readings today take us back in time to the days that followed Jesus' resurrection. Peter preached in the temple, promising forgiveness for those who repent and convert. John wrote to the early Christian community, promising the love of God to those who keep the commandments. Before all this, Jesus appeared to his disciples, assuring them of his bodily presence and charging them to testify in his name to the whole world. Let us listen, knowing we are called to do the same.

Thinking of becoming Catholic?

If you're not a Catholic, or you are a baptized Catholic lacking Confirmation and Eucharist, we invite you to explore the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Registration forms are available in the vestibule of the Church and on the Parish Website at www.sfxhouston.com.

Stewardship Reflection

That we have the courage to do the work God has sent us to do, knowing that this is the true path to peace and joy. "Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' But they were startled and frightened..." - Luke 24:36-37 Throughout the day we have many opportunities to "see the face of Jesus" in others and to "be the face of Jesus" to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide "peace" to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a "God-centered" life and not a "self-centered" life.

St. Francis Xavier Health Ministry is reorganizing. We are recruiting members, age 16 and up, interested in promoting awareness about health. We will bring back the second Sunday blood pressure check and much more. See the Health Ministry page on the Parish Website (www.sfxhouston.com) for health observances during the month of April. You do not need to work in the health field, just have an interest in helping others. This is an excellent opportunity for those who are considering a career in health. For further information, please Email marysias@att.net and place "Health Ministry" in the subject line. Volunteers must have met all Safe Environment (Virtus) requirements for the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal
 Next week, we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, over 40 percent of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:
A Prayer for Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Even amid great confusion and guilt, Jesus wishes us Peace (Shalom)

I read a story of a mother whose teenage son came with excitement to tell his mother that he has finally been able to memorize a scripture verse. The mother was so anxious to share the good news with her pastor and could not wait for Sunday School class. When she got the chance to speak with the pastor on Sunday, she told the pastor: “My teenage son has finally learned a Bible verse. It is in Luke 24 verse 41. ‘Have you anything to eat’”?

Peter in speaking to a Jewish audience, offered them and us a challenge not to repeat Rome’s crucifixion of Christ and the Jewish rejection him. This Jesus Christ is the one who makes healing possible. The crucified and resurrected Jesus is the Child of the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. This life affirming Christ is the redeeming and healing agent who has come into our lives to help us transform our violent and devastating ways of life that thwart our pathways of peace and understanding. Jesus Christ is one through whom we overcome our ignorance and confusion.

The Easter Saturday night event brought a great deal of confusion and uneasiness. Early on the Sunday morning, Jesus’ tomb was found to be empty. Peter and John also came and saw the empty tomb with nothing in it. Some women, who were also followers of Jesus, claimed that they had talked with an angel who assured them that Jesus is alive for he has risen. So much had taken place within the short time that it was overwhelming. Mary Magdalene talked about seeing Jesus later in the day. Jesus appeared to two disciples and not only walked with them but had joined in their conversation only to disappear after breaking bread with them. When these same disciples returned to tell their story, Jesus suddenly appeared to them even though the doors were locked. We can imagine the overwhelming surprise, shock, and disbelief, not mentioning how terrified they may have been. We cannot also discount their embarrassment and the feeling of guilt since they had abandoned him, their master, in his greatest time of need after his arrest. Some even denied knowing him. It is no wonder the disciples reacted to the appearance of the resurrected Lord among them with “disbelief” and “wonder”.

It is within this mixed bag of emotions that Jesus, dispelled their doubts and greeted them: “Peace be with you”. He then assures them that he is alive, and they are not seeing a ghost. He invited them to feel his hands and side because a ghost does not have flesh and bone. He enlightened the disciples and then commissioned them to preach the gospel to all. The resurrection of Christ thus becomes the object of the church’s faith and the centerpiece of the proclamation of the new life in Christ.

It is this new life in Christ that Peter and John proclaimed in the Temple area to the lame man who asked them for money. The lame man accepted the invitation to receive Christ. He was excited, jumped, and danced praising God, to the amazement of the people in the temple. This commotion offered Peter the opportunity to testify to Christ’s resurrection and called his audience to repentance.

The resurrection of Jesus has become the most wonderful life-changing event in human history. Because Jesus rose from the dead, our world is a different world even though evil and hatred, as well as suffering, still hang around trying to inflict us with its poison. The sting of death is neutralized, and death no longer has power over us. Fear can no longer hold us down because Jesus has offered us his “peace” (Shalom). As “witnesses of these things” we have his peace. It behooves us, while experiencing this peace, even amid our confusion and guilt, to proclaim his peace (shalom). So, can we more fully witness the resurrection of Jesus Christ to our brothers and sisters? Can you be counted among the “witnesses of these things”?

Elder Abuse

Elder abuse can happen to anyone and it can take many different forms. Most cases of abuse reported to Adult Protective Services involve "self-neglect." Many of these people are vulnerable to abuse because they live alone or are dependent on someone else for their care. Texas requires by law the reporting of elder abuse or the suspicion of elder abuse. If you know of someone who cannot care for himself/herself, or who is being abused, neglected or exploited, whether they live alone or with a spouse or caregiver, Texas law requires that you report the abuse. The number is 1-800-252-5400; your report will remain confidential. For additional information, please contact the Office of Aging at 713-741-8712.
