THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jonah delivers a warning to Nineveh that their city will be destroyed in forty days. After only one day, the people listened and repented. In the Gospel, Jesus comes to Galilee with a call to repent and believe. Building a team committed to his mission, he invites four fishermen to follow him. Immediately they leave their work and families to do so. In between, we hear Paul, whose life was changed on the road to Damascus, calling the Corinthians to conversion. Let these readings inspire us to listen and respond.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion
 My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Stewardship Reflection

That we may hear Jesus' personal invitation to "Follow Him" and respond by generously sharing all our gifts. "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." - Mark 1:17 Jesus' call to "Follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

Stewardship Intention Card

You are invited to commit to giving tithes and offerings by completing a Call to Stewardship Intention Card. These cards were mailed in your January Envelope packet and collected during all Masses on Stewardship Intention weekend. If you do not receive envelopes, contact the Parish Office and a card will be mailed to you. Thank you in advance for renewing your financial commitment to God and to your church family.

If you will need a copy of your 2020 contribution statement for tax purposes, please call the Parish Office at (713) 738-2311. Statements will be sent only upon request.

Please note: Contributions received after December 31st will not be reflected on statements for 2020.

We celebrate the Memorial of St. Blaise on February 3rd with two candles touching the throat as the prayer is being said. The Book of Blessings (cf. No. 1628) allows the celebrant to impart the blessing of throats by extending his hands over the liturgical assembly while saying the prayer of blessing only once. In light of the COVID Pandemic, the celebrant will invoke the blessing of throats over the congregation from the Altar at one time. There will be no individual blessing of throats.

Happy Sunday! Brothers and sisters, the scriptures for today speak to our hearts in a powerful way. Nineveh will be destroyed within forty days if people do not repent. Saint Paul tells us in that “time is running out”. Jesus proclaims, “This is the time of fulfillment. The Kingdom of God is at hand.” God is calling us to transform our hearts and to love one another. Jesus is guiding us to follow Him and not stray.

It’s okay to keep up with current events and get active about changes that are needed. But we can’t let it deter us or distract us from following God’s call for us. We can’t let it turn us away from God. If anything, it should turn us more toward God.

In the first reading today from Jonah, Jonah fell into the trap of letting his feelings about the Ninevites cause him to turn away from God’s call for him. He was a Jewish prophet who spoke on behalf of God. Yet he still let his experience, of the Ninevites being the enemy of the Jews, take priority over God’s call for him.

Our first reading today begins at chapter 3 where God calls Jonah to go to Nineveh. And we are told that he sets out in obedience to the Word of the Lord. It seems that Jonah is following God’s command for him. He is following God’s call. But note, this is the second time that God summons Jonah. What happened the first time?

Well...let’s look at the back story in Jonah. The story begins with Jonah somewhere near the modern city of Tel Aviv. God commands him to go to Nineveh, which is located to the northeast. Nineveh is the capital of Assyria. And it was Assyria that wiped out the Northern kingdom of Israel in the 8th century. So the Ninevites were Gentiles and were enemies of the Jews. So Jonah has no love for these Assyrians. If therefore, he goes to Nineveh and preaches repentance, the people might repent and God, therefore, would not destroy them.

I was listening to the radio one morning, and the radio host framed a scenario about a neighbor. She described this bad-mannered neighbor. A neighbor who won’t speak to you when you speak. When you wave, they don’t wave back.

Let Us Make God Our Priority

When they see you out, they go in the other direction. You see them in the grocery store, they go down another aisle. You give a party and invite them, and they don’t show. They may even call the police on you (during your party) because they feel you are disturbing the peace. So the radio host asked, what if you saw someone breaking into their house, would you call 911? Or...would you be inclined to pay them back by not helping? This is where Jonah’s heart is. God gives Jonah a command to preach to his enemy, the Ninevites, to have them to stop sinning and turn toward God. But Jonah wants God to destroy Nineveh, so what does he do? He boards a boat heading in exactly the opposite direction. To Tarshish, in modern day Spain.

This is Jonah’s focus on self. It’s about what I want, not what God wants. And so Jonah is taught a lesson. The ship on which he is traveling is suddenly overwhelmed by a terrifying storm. And the captain of the ship becomes suspicious. Someone aboard this ship has done something to offend their god.

We are all being punished, they think. The seas grow rougher and rougher, so the sailors decide to draw lots to see who is responsible. Jonah comes clean. He admits that he is responsible, and he tells the sailors to toss him overboard. He knows that if they toss him overboard, the storm will subside. So, they toss him overboard and the storm subsides. Now most of you will be familiar with this part of the story. Jonah is devoured by a large fish. You may know it as ‘Jonah and the Whale’. And he remains in the belly of the fish for 3 days and 3 nights.

The story of Jonah is, of course, a parable. What does the belly of the fish signify? It is a time of repentance.

Jonah acknowledges his self-centeredness, and he changes. By God’s grace, he places the divine command at the center of his life. Then the fish spews Jonah out onto dry land. And this is where today’s first reading begins. The Word of the Lord is addressed to Jonah a second time. Go to Nineveh and preach repentance...and so Jonah goes. He now follows God. He follows God’s call to minister to his enemies.

Brothers and sisters, sometimes God calls us to minister to our enemies. Who might be our enemy? It could be that bad neighbor. Or a co-worker. Our family member...even a loved one.

Imagine this... You have a few of your family members over to your house one Christmas Eve. You have your brother and/or sister over and they bring their children. You notice the next day that a few of your Christmas presents are missing. You look all over the house and can’t find them. You ask your children about them and no one has seen them. The next day, you notice a watch and some jewelry missing out of your jewelry box. Once again, you search the house and no sign of it. Then you think, certainly my hidden emergency cash is not missing. You go to your hidden spot and it’s gone. You are now furious and going ‘off the rails’ that someone has robbed you. You figure out that it had to be someone who you knew who was in the house. You ask everyone and no one knows. A week later, you are talking to your sister and she tells you that she has just put her son out of her house. Her son was strung out on drugs and stealing from her. He also had his drug friends coming around the house and she felt unsafe. You figure out...that’s it...it was your nephew who stole your Christmas presents, jewelry, and money from your house. Two weeks later, you come out of Church, after Mass, and it’s freezing cold. You see your nephew shivering in the parking lot. You can’t believe it. You get mad (and you just came out of Mass) and you walk over to him. Your nephew says that he is hungry, cold, homeless, and addicted to drugs. All you can think about is that he just stole from you a month earlier. He says that he is sorry.

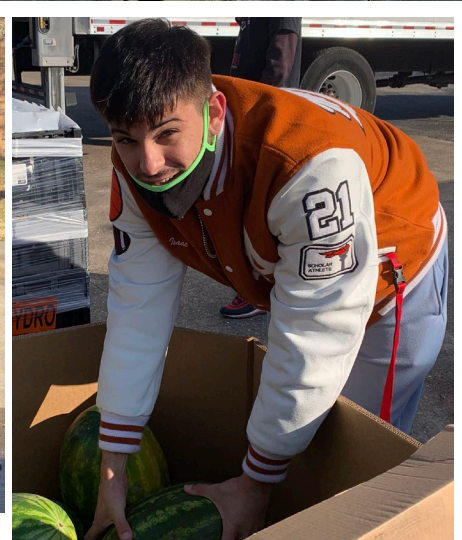

What do you do? Do you drive off and leave him and say, “that’s what you get for stealing my stuff”? Or do you forgive him, minister to him, and try to help him turn his life around? I’d ask myself ‘what would Jesus do?’ and pray that I could follow God’s answer for me instead of what I might want to do.

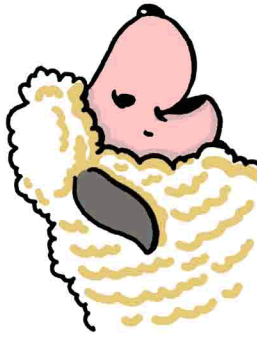

So, brothers and sisters, please reflect on God’s call for you. What kind of service is God nudging you to do? Are you responding to his call? In spite of your resistance to the call? I pray that God will give each and every one of you his grace and strength to follow him. He will forgive. He forgave Jonah. He forgave the Ninevites. He asks us to repent and to have a sense of urgency. Jesus tells us today to drop our nets, our baggage, whatever is holding us back...and to follow him. Let us make God our priority.
