SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In the first reading, Elisha takes an offering of barley loaves and shares it with many more people than it would be expected to feed. All ate plenty and some was even left over. In the Gospel, Jesus takes five barley loaves and two fish and is able to share them with over five thousand people. All ate their fill, and twelve baskets were filled with the leftovers. God is able to provide more than we need, despite all appearances to the contrary. As we sing in the psalm today, "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs." Psalm 145

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Stewardship Reflection

That regardless of our own individual circumstance, we all recognize that we have the ability to share. "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" John 6:9 The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant!

Bazaar King & Queen Contest Cancelled

Due to the shortened time period available for our contestants to raise funds, we will cancel the Bazaar King & Queen Contest this year. We appreciate the intentions of all those who had anticipated participating in the contest this year and look forward to your participation in 2022.

Volunteers Needed!!!

Volunteers are needed in all areas to make this Bazaar a success. If you are willing and able, please sign up in the vestibule of the church or call the Parish Office at (713) 738-2311 to volunteer for any of the Bazaar Booths.

Kid's Games

The Young Adults Ministry will coordinate the Kid's Games for the Bazaar this year. Donations of prizes and kid friendly games are needed. Volunteers are also needed to help monitor the games. Sign up in the vestibule of the Church or call the Parish Office at (713) 738-2311. You must be 18 years or older and must have completed the Archdiocese Safe Environment Training.

Pastor's Reflection

Great Results Come from Meager Provisions

As a Christian, if someone were to ask you to list your duties what will it include? What are your responsibilities? The things that are expected of you. Will they be defined in the light of your position in the Church? I mean, what the Church needs or what you do for the Church? Do you offer excuses with the little you have as not being enough? We hear Jesus sharing with us that the proper role and responsibility of every Christian is to feed God's hungry people, not just physically but spiritually, emotionally and psychologically. Today Jesus' attention is focused on the physical hunger of a large crowd of people who have just been ministered to. This feeding is prophetic because it recalls the similar action of the Prophet Elisha. Elisha's power as prophet of God with authority to speak God's truth was affirmed by his feeding of over one hundred (100) people with twenty (20) loaves of barley bread. Jesus' action also affirms his power and authority as the Son of God. The action to provide physical nourishment to the people reflects the act of God who provided "manna" for the people in the wilderness (Exodus 16: 1-16). The story of Jesus feeding the crowd is told not less than six times in the Gospels.

Today, John tells us about one such feeding with the story of the multiplication of the loaves. The feeding comes after Jesus' encounter with those who do not believe in him. Jesus rejects them in Jerusalem and moves on from there to go across the Sea of Galilee, i.e., Tiberias. However, according to Mark, the feeding of the multitude comes after Jesus and his disciples have come from their intense ministry and they needed some deserted place to rest. They get into a boat and sail to a deserted area across the Sea of Tiberias. However, the people who had experienced Jesus and his ministry figured out what was happening and got there first. When Jesus and his disciples disembarked from their boat, they saw that their trip was no longer secret. Jesus was moved with compassion and realizing that they needed leaders and care, responded to their need by teaching them at great length.

Realizing that it was getting late, the disciples asked Jesus to dismiss the crowd so they could go to the surrounding farms and villages to get some food. When Jesus suggested to the disciples to feed the crowd themselves, they protested that it would be impossible to do such a thing.

Without mentioning that they have talked to a young boy about sharing, they reported to Jesus that they have five loaves and two fish. With this amount of food, Jesus feeds over 5,000 people. Matthew tells us that women and children were not counted among the total number of people who were fed.

Unlike Matthew, Mark and Luke, John's gospel not only hints at the Eucharistic implications of this miracle but elaborates on it at length. In telling the story, John's gospel states that the disciples had already arrived at the place where Jesus fed the people and others followed later. Jesus had already anticipated feeding the people when he saw them. He did not need advice from the disciples about the people's hunger. He knew in his heart what he was going to do.

Only John tells us about the young boy who was willing to share his small meal with others. The willingness of the young boy to share his meal of barley bread (which only the poor ate) and fish tells us about the importance of sharing. He gave his food to Jesus and Jesus made it a eucharistic offering to the multitude. The young boy had to trust that Jesus could do something with his food, and he did.

Not only did they have more than enough to eat, but they also had twelve (12) baskets full of bread fragments. John uses this story as a "sign" to point at something else i.e., the ultimate sharing of Jesus' very self as food for all through His Word and Sacrament. Jesus expects his disciples, you and me, to continue this ministry and to tend those who hunger for him. The strength we draw from him will be more than enough to "feed" those who hunger for him.

Despite the joy and excitement that come from working in the Lord's vineyard, we will get tired and need rest. Sometimes amid such needed rest, plans will change. We will be called to minister. Jesus exemplifies for us what to do in such moments. We cannot make excuses with what we do not have, our tiredness and our inability to minister. We are to count on our blessings, like the young boy, and make them available to Christ. He has the power to take them and work miracles, even though they may seem to be inadequate. Jesus takes the five (5) loaves of barley bread and two fish that the young boy offered to become physical and spiritual nourishment for thousands of people. What we offer to Jesus can also be life saving for others.

We are more than our stories, more than our traumas, more than our suffering. Therapy is about possibilities and courage.

Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) is rising among the youngest members of our society. A child with PTSD may have constant, scary thoughts, and memories of a past event. A traumatic event, such as a car crash, natural disaster, or physical abuse, can cause PTSD. Children with PTSD may relive the trauma repeatedly. They may have nightmares or flashbacks.
