PENTECOST SUNDAY

Before God sent the Holy Spirit to all who were baptized in the Lord's name, people of great faith described what God's Spirit could do. Ezekiel imagined the spirit giving life to dry bones. Joel prophesied that the spirit would enable everyone to witness great wonders. The psalmist sang of the spirit renewing the whole world. Jesus promised his disciples that rivers of living water would flow from within them. Listening to scripture today, let us reflect on how the Spirit moves in our life.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Stewardship Reflection

That we may generously share our unique gifts in our parish community to carry on the work of Jesus Christ. "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." - 1 Corinthians 12:4-6 All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God's plan to work, each must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God's plan to work you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do.

ATTENDANCE

Attendance on May 15th & May 16th was 240. Please join us via Livestream, or bring a friend to come worship with us in the church. Masks will not be required, but they are encouraged.

Pentecost: The power to proclaim God's saving love as shown in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ

Today we celebrated the birth of the Christian Church. The day when Jesus Christ breath on his disciples grouped together after the resurrection. The Holy Spirit came down upon the community of believers and brought them the gift of life. Our celebration is marked with the color “red” to symbolize the love of the Holy Spirit. Red also represents the tongues of fire on the heads of the believers when they were anointed with great power. Today’s feast reverses what happened at Babel (Gen. 11:9) where different languages were borne to confuse the people.

Pentecost, which was originally celebrated as “harvest feast” was commemorated long before Jesus was born. At Mt. Sinai, the Jews celebrated this feast after God gave the Law to the Hebrew people and established a covenant with them.

It was at the celebration of this feast in Jerusalem that the Holy Spirit came upon the believers in Christ. The Holy Spirit enabled them to powerfully proclaim God’s saving love to the world as shown in the death and resurrection of Jesus.

St. Luke narrates what happens in the Upper Room in a very energetic way. He tells us that the disciples were gathered together when suddenly the sound of wind filled the air and balls as of fire hovered like tongues over each of those gathered in the room. They were filled with the Holy Spirit who led them to proclaim their message in languages they had never studied and later go into places they had never been. The elements of wind and fire of the Holy Spirit are immeasurable, unpredictable, and often uncontrollable.

We can deduce from the Scripture readings that the disciples had gathered in fear and were praying or singing Psalm 104 to God, asking Him to “send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth”. With courage and generosity, they were praying like Moses did, that God will free them and create a people for the covenant. They sang this Psalm to God, the Creator who brought all things into being and who, through the Spirit, continues to animate and sustain all life. Then the Spirit descended massively, exceeding their expectation – not only on those in the room, but also on those who saw and heard what happened.

The Spirit empowered them for mission as described in Genesis (Gen 2:7). Jesus later promised this same Spirit to his disciples (Jn 14:16) and commissioned them in Acts 1:8 to be his witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth. This empowerment of the Spirit manifests itself in the life of the Christian as advocate, mediator, helper, intercessor, or comforter. For many of us, it is when we later look back that we realize how the Holy Spirit has kept us alive through it all. Like the story of footprints, many of us are not even aware that the Spirit of God has been helping us all along.

St Paul in his Galatian Letter (Gal 5:22-26) shares with us the fruits of the Spirit. They are personal qualities like love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. The gifts of the Spirit also include wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, fear of the Lord, and the gifts of healing, miracles, prophecy, discernment of spirit, tongues, teaching, pastoring, love, and other means in which we minister to one another.

We celebrate the activities of the Spirit we have received through the sacraments and how they manifested through our daily lives. We also recall the occasion in which the Spirit was given to the Church to guide and direct its growth. The Spirit came to the Apostles and those with them, and it comes to us, not just for personal gains, but to commission them and us to proclaim God’s love.

Knowing that the Christian birthday excitement will disappear with time and challenges, Jesus encourages us to pray for the Spirit (Lk 11:11-13). So, as we celebrate the birth of the Christian movement, may we pray to the Holy Spirit for the grace to gather in faith and share the love and mystery we profess to the extent that we are able. Over two thousand years ago, the Spirit came to the Apostles and about 120 members of the early community of believers, and through their proclamation of the Love of God, the faith is going gradually to the end of the world. May the Holy Spirit help us to always recognize his presence in each of us.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ALL OF US!

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE OF GALVESTON-HOUSTON

A letter to the faithful regarding updated pandemic protocols

MAY 19, 2021

By Daniel Cardinal DiNardo, Archbishop of Galveston-Houston

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

At the outset of the coronavirus pandemic I modified the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy and non-liturgical parish gatherings within the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston in order to prevent these gatherings from becoming sources of community spread for the virus. These modifications were aimed at the common good of all who live within our communities.

The local pandemic situation is greatly improved. Therefore, I have amended our pandemic protocols. Beginning with the celebration of the Vigil Mass of Pentecost on the evening of Saturday, May 22, 2021 social distancing no longer needs to be maintained during liturgical celebrations. Parish churches and chapels may be filled to 100% of the building's occupancy load. Masks will not be required, but they are encouraged.

Also effective on the evening of May 22, 2021, the temporary suspension of receiving Holy Communion on the tongue is removed. Holy Communion may be received on the tongue, or in the hand, at the communicant's discretion. The temporary suspension of receiving Holy Communion under the appearance of wine from a common chalice remains in effect until further notice.

For the time being, the general dispensation from the Sunday obligation remains in effect for all Catholics within the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston.

With assurances of my prayers, and commending this local Church to the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Daniel Cardinal DiNardo

Archbishop of Galveston-Houston

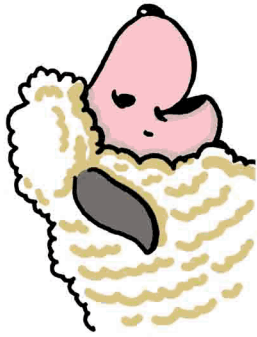

New Auxiliary Bishop named in Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston

Father Italo Dell'Oro, C.R.S., was named Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston by Pope Francis today on May 18.

“It is with great pleasure that I introduce Bishop-elect Italo Dell'Oro, C.R.S.,” said Daniel Cardinal DiNardo, Archbishop of Galveston-Houston. “I also wish to express my profound gratitude to Pope Francis for appointing him as the next Auxiliary Bishop of Galveston-Houston.”

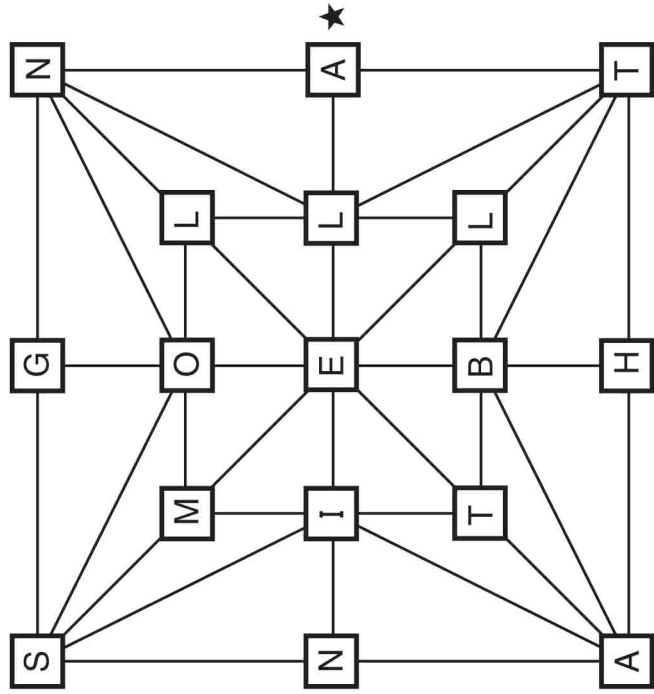

Bishop-elect Dell'Oro has served as a priest for almost 40 years, 30 of those in the local Archdiocese. Since 2015, he has served as Vicar for Clergy and the Secretariat Director for Clergy Formation and Chaplaincy Services. He was named Vicar General in 2021.

“In all of his years in Galveston-Houston, Bishop-elect Dell'Oro has been a genuine, pastoral presence to the many people and cultures of our great region, along with being a mindful ambassador to the wonderful religious orders and communities in the area,” Cardinal DiNardo said.
