TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today we travel back in time to when God created humankind.

Realizing that the first human needed a suitable partner, God formed a woman out of the man's own body. In the Gospel, Jesus quotes the line that ends the first reading—that husband and wife formed as one flesh—to speak of this new entity. He follows this lesson by welcoming children, telling the disciples that one must accept the kingdom of God like a child. Listening to scripture today, let us embrace the innocence and wonder of a new being.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Stewardship Reflection

That we may care for the planet and be better stewards of the earth's resources. "So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name." (Genesis 2:19) The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

The St. Francis Xavier Health Ministry will host a free Zoom seminar in October on Breast Health.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

October 3, 2021

"...and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh."

Mark 10:8

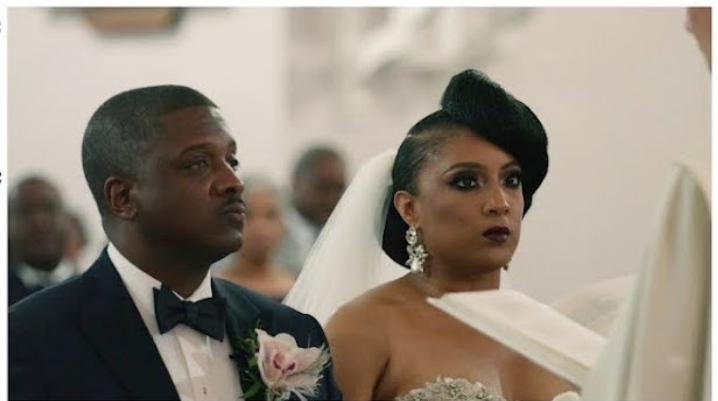

Becoming one with your spouse in marriage--is not enough!

The Gospel reading is found in Mark 10:2-16. The question asked by the Pharisees was one of the debated subjects of that day. Some of the scribes held that a man could divorce his wife for almost any cause. Other scribes insisted that divorce was lawful only in case of adultery. The Pharisees came to test Jesus and to try and find a weakness in Him. "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" Mark 10:2. The Torah (the first five books of Moses) allowed a man to write out a "bill of divorce" thus allowing and freeing his wife to leave and remarry (Deuteronomy 24:1-4). In Jesus' day, the Jewish religion permitted divorce. Jesus explained that the instructions in Deuteronomy were a compromise that Moses made because of the "hardness of the people's heart".

Jesus reminded His listeners of God's original plan for men and women. He took them back to the book of Genesis 2:6 "But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason, a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." As Christians, we have to remember that Jesus not only quoted the passage in Genesis, but He was also a part of the creation of the male and female. Jesus is a member of the Godhead. We as followers of Christ believe in the one God, who exists eternally in 3 Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Jesus can not be separated from the Father and the Holy Spirit. Jesus was present at creation. St. Paul in Colossians 1:16 states: "For by Him [Jesus] all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers of authorities; all things were created by Him and for Him." Jesus knew and accurately told the initial design of the male and female because He was there with God when it occurred. Jesus said that the man and woman shall become one flesh, so that they are no longer two, but one.

Why is it necessary for the two to become one flesh? Let's say that I have two strands of cord and I needed to lift and carry a heavy object. The cord may snap and break if I only use one of the strands. I will have a better chance if I twist the two strands together to form one cord or rope thus doubling the strength to carry the load. Married couples are one! They need to combine their energy to handle the pressures of life.

Years ago I was watching someone braid hair. The stylist explained that when you used only two strands of hair to braid; it was hard for the braids to stay together. As I observed, the stylist then used 3 strands of hair. She showed how the two strands that were wrapped together must be interwoven with the third strand of hair. This will strengthen the braid and give it durability.

Becoming one with your spouse in marriage is not enough. The man and woman must interweave themselves to a third strand, and the third strand is Jesus Christ. The third strand will keep the first two strands together if they are braided together in the teachings of Christ. "A threefold cord is not quickly broken." Ecclesiastes 4:12
