SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Each of today's readings looks toward the future while assuring us of God's continuing presence with us. The apostles rely on the Holy Spirit to guide them as to which Mosaic practices are necessary for all Christians. The author of Revelation envisions a new Jerusalem, radiant in the glory of God. In the Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples that the Father would send the Holy Spirit to teach them, to remind them of his words, and to advocate for them. In the presence of the Spirit, let us listen to God's word.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Stewardship Reflection

That the next time worry, anxiety or fear enters our life, make God your first choice and not your last resort. "...Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (John 14:27) Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you. Make God your first choice and not your last resort.

Next week, our special collection supports the Catholic Communication Campaign. This campaign engages and builds Catholic communities in the United States and developing countries using the internet, television, radio, and print media. Half of the money collected remains here in the Galveston-Houston Archdiocese to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the Gospel message? To learn more, visit: www.usccb.org/cc.

Remember, the more letters Pope Francis receives, the more he will understand the determination of our effort.

Spend an hour with each of our six African American women & men on the road to sainthood: Servant of God Sr. Thea Bowman, Venerable Sr. Henriette Delille, Servant of God Mother Mary Lange, Venerable Fr. Augustus Tolton & Venerable Pierre Toussaint. 9-Day Novena to the Holy Spirit

The Second Vatican Council emphasizes the honor and duty, especially of lay people, to pray and invoke the Holy Spirit in every phase of their life. As we approach Pentecost Sunday, we are providing you with a copy of the 9-Day Novena to the Holy Spirit developed by the Congregation of the Holy Spirit (aka, The Holy Ghost Fathers). We will begin to pray the Novena on Friday, May 27th, before the 7:00am Mass and end on Saturday, June 4th, before the 5:00pm Mass. If you cannot join us in the Church, please pray the Novena privately in your home or with your family for the nine days leading up to Pentecost Sunday, June 5th. Lay people, dedicated to Christ and anointed by The Holy Spirit, are marvelously gifted to share in the New Life and to bear forth abundantly, the gifts and fruit of the Holy Spirit.

Prevent the SUMMER SLIDE!

“Reading a minimum of 20 minutes a day allows children’s vocabulary to grow and expand, exposing them to 1.8 million vocabulary words a year.” -Elizabeth Barnes,

Students who participated in summer reading programs entered the following school year with a positive attitude about reading.

Students can ask their librarian or teachers for a list of good books.

Students can start a book club with friends, neighbors or family.

His Holiness Pope Francis
Saint Martha House
00120 Citta del Vaticano, Vatican City

Dear Pope Francis:

This letter is written to ask you to canonize the six African American candidates for sainthood immediately. It is embarrassing to many of us in America that in the church where we worship, there are no United States African American saints recognized by the highest church authorities. At 899 saints, you, as Pope, have canonized the most saints in Catholic Church history. It is time that African Americans "go marching in" with that number.

Blacks in America have endured unearned suffering since the first enslaved persons arrived in 1619. The six African American candidates for sainthood were either born into enslavement or educated the enslaved at personal risks to themselves. Their lives were miracles of generosity of spirit, sacrifice and survival, many would argue.

We are asking you to name Pierre Toussaint, Henriette Delille, Augustus Tolton, Julia Greeley, Mother Mary Lange and Thea Bowman as Catholic saints using your santo subito process. To many of us in America, sainthood delayed is sainthood denied.

While African Americans have remained faithful to the church over centuries: enduring enslavement, racial segregation (even within the church), mass incarceration and mass poverty, we have been treated as second class members. You canonizing the six current candidates for sainthood would make a very strong statement of reckoning and reconciliation. While there are no U.S. African American saints there are 11 white Americans who have been canonized. We know there is a process but it is not working for Black American Catholics and supporters. The process is reaping unfair, uneven results, especially when you realize that the six Black saints have been waiting 714 years totally if you add up the times since each died.

Please treat the six African American candidates for sainthood fairly by redefining and rectifying the process. Please canonize them immediately. If not now, when? If not you, who?

Sincerely and respectfully yours,
