THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH

Today we hear practical guidance and wonderful inspiration regarding treating those close to us, particularly family members. Sirach, which has provided moral teachings since the second century BCE, speaks of the honor we owe our parents especially as they age. Saint Paul counsels the early Christian in the virtues that should direct how we treat others. Luke relates the profound responses the child Jesus elicited in the temple when Mary and Joseph presented him to the Lord.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Stewardship Reflection

That God will provide us the strength to forgive those that have hurt us. "...as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must forgive." - Colossians 3:13 Forgiving is one of the hardest things for people to do. We can't give what we don't have. We need to receive God's mercy and forgiveness first before we can give it to others. Go to the sacrament of Reconciliation and receive God's mercy and forgiveness. Then, share the gift of forgiveness with someone – a family member, a friend or a co-worker. Pick up the phone or text someone right now.

Stewardship Intention Card

God has blessed us with another New Year! You are invited to commit to giving tithes and offerings by completing a Call to Stewardship Intention Card. These cards were mailed in your January Envelope packet. If you do not receive envelopes, we have cards in the vestibule of the church and the Parish Office. Cards will be collected on the weekend of January 6th & 7th.

Annual Giving Statements

If you will need a copy of your 2023 contribution statement for tax purposes, please call the Parish Office after December 31st at (713) 738-2311. Statements will be sent only upon request.

Please note: Contributions received after December 31st will not be reflected on statements for 2023.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph (Year B)

The Feast of the Holy Family and the readings this weekend is in perfect harmony with the Season of Christmas. Both examples teach us to respect and love one another in perfect union. The family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph and the family of Abraham and Sarah, both lived righteous lives in the eyes of the Lord God.

Today's First Reading reveals to us, Abraham and Sarah were childless and advanced in age. They were concerned that whatever they possessed, it would be handed down to a slave as their heirs. But God told Abraham that this was not so. If he was to look up in the sky at all the stars, God promised that his descendants would be as many as those shining lights in the sky. Abraham believed the Word of God that was fulfilled, and his faith made him righteous in the eyes of the Lord.

It is the same with us. After having received the Sacrament of Baptism through faith in Jesus Christ, if we believe and obey the teachings of God and the Holy Catholic Church, that were instituted by our Lord on earth, then our Sacramental living faith makes us righteous in the eyes of God. Through the faith of Abraham, God began the progressive growth of his chosen people. At the beginning it was believed that God's chosen people was limited to persons of the Jewish Nation. But now, since the glorious resurrection of our Lord Jesus the Christ, it has been extended to all the Gentiles of every nation, that is includes us. Being encouraged by the Holy Spirit, we answer our calling, doing God's work, and trusting in the Lord to provide what is best for our spiritual growth. While we do not know what tomorrow holds for us, our faith, hope, and trust tell us that this is the best thing to do to remain in favor with God as holy families.

When listening to the Gospel of Luke on this celebration of the Holy Family, we hear how Mary and Joseph also obeyed God. As the parents of Jesus, they were not exempted from their spiritual obligations to the Jewish law. As you have been commanded by Jesus to present your children to be baptized, Mary and Joseph also had to present Jesus at the Temple to the Lord, offering the necessary sacrifice that was required by law.

Guided to the Temple by the Holy Spirit, the man Simeon finally experienced God's promise when he saw Mary and Joseph with Baby Jesus. Holding Jesus in his hands, he praised God. When Simeon told Mary and Joseph what had been revealed to him about baby Jesus, His parents were amazed. Now, in the Temple, there lived an 84-year-old widow by the name of Anna who was a prophetess. She spent her days worshipping and fasting, praying day and night. Now when Mary and Joseph were finished with Simeon, Anna came and began to praise God and to speak about the Child proclaiming for all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. As we can appreciate, the experience that Mary and Joseph enjoyed by the presences of Simeon and Anna were blessings of God. In the same way, we as spiritual parents are also blessed by God. Our experiences may not be as outstanding as the ones enjoyed by Mary and Joseph. Nevertheless, we are still blessed in many ways through our spiritual family. If we are to open our hearts, our eyes, and our ears, surely, the Holy Spirit will guide us regarding the need of our families; the Holy Spirit moves daily in our lives in many ways. We should always keep our hearts, our eyes, and our ears open!

United in respect and love, as family members, parents a, we should all strive to be holy children of God who live in holy families. By imitating Mary and Joseph, Abraham, and Sarah, and placing our faith in the Lord God, we also are reminded that Lord God loves us. He reminded us that He wants us to be holy families, living by the example of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Through today's readings, the Lord God reminded us that He blesses those who obey Him and live their faith in Christ. May God's Words be sealed in our hearts so we may never forget our spiritual responsibility towards others, our loved ones, our relatives, our neighbors, our co-workers, and even the strangers, so we may all share in the joy of being holy families in Christ.
