THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We are reminded today that we have all been called to a life of service before God. Malachi specifically addresses the priests, who of all people should not be setting a poor example. Paul reminds the Thessalonians that the apostles gave their very selves in their work and ministry. Finally, Jesus warns the crowds what will happen if one exalts oneself. With humble hearts, let us ponder God's word.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Stewardship Reflection

That we ask God to help us grow in the virtue of humility. "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - Matthew 23:12 The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions is the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety and depression than ever before. The key to a happy life is relationship. Relationship with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

DON'T FORGET TO VOTE

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Sometimes people's words inspire us, but more often it is the witness they give with their actions that inspires. Additionally, when someone's words do not match up with their actions, they are seen as hypocrites. Jesus is very hard on the scribes and the Pharisees for this reason. "For they preach but they do not practice." They spoke about the Law of God, they taught it in a detailed way, but they did not truly practice God's Law as it was intended to be practiced. They thought they was above the Law, as we all do from time to time.

Jesus continues to give a list of the ways that these religious leaders failed to live the laws of God. They failed in their charity and encouragement of others, they did everything for public praise and for show, and they sought out honors and meaningless titles. As a result, they cared little for others and cared much about themselves. This self-serving attitude was not impressive to Jesus. At the heart of Jesus' criticism of the scribes and Pharisees was their tendency to exalt themselves in the eyes of others. Jesus corrects this affinity by saying that "the greatest among you must be your servant," and that "whoever humbles himself will be exalted." Therefore, if you wish to be truly great and if you wish to be exalted by God, you must serve with the deepest humility.

Humility begins by seeing yourself in the light of truth. Being honest with yourself and like I said last Sunday, looking at that reflection in the mirror, and asking, how does God see you? The humble soul seeks to discover this insight by using the eyes of Christ to look at their own soul. It would be truly humbling if we could see ourselves in the full light of the truth. But too often we take on a false image of ourselves and look at our lives through a lens of self-righteousness. We tend to quickly defend our actions, justifying the sins we commit and failing to acknowledge our weaknesses.

What would you see if you looked at yourself with the eyes of humility? One thing we will definitely see is our sins. Our lives are filled with sin, if we say we don't sin then we too are being a hypocrite. Sometimes they are serious sins, and at other times less serious, but our lives are undoubtedly filled with sins and imperfections. If we ignore and are blind to those sins, then we lack the necessary humility we need to see ourselves in the light of truth. The virtue of humility will also take us a step further than seeing our sins clearly. It will also help us to see our need for God's grace to change, to love with your whole heart, mind, and soul, and to serve God and neighbor as you do yourself. We cannot love by our own efforts, it is impossible, without God. Because of our humanity we are limited in perfection. The love of charity is only possible when it is God who lives in us and acts through us. God and God alone can only work true charity through our actions. Knowing and believing in this humble truth is the only way to open the door to receive God's grace.

Today, the Gospel challenges us to reflect, upon the humility that you need in order to truly love. When you love others with the pure love of God, you will discover within yourself a need to serve. You will see others as objects of your love not envy. You will discover a burning desire to help them, forgive them, be gentle and merciful to them, and to do all you can to help them discover God's truth in their own lives so they will, humbly turn to God. The scribes and Pharisees failed miserably at this mission, and that is one of the reasons that Jesus used them as a model. "...but do not follow their example." Seek to take the opposite approach. Seek humility. Seek the truth. If you do, God will use you in powerful ways and will exalt you on high.
