FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two ...

Summer is a popular time to take a trip, and so it is appropriate that today we hear two readings about traveling. Amos journeys from his home in Judah to prophesy in Bethel, but the authorities there order him to go elsewhere. Jesus sends the Twelve out to travel across the region, instructing them what to take and what to do on their journey. Let us prepare for our own travels, whether near or far, to do the Lord's work, for we are his disciples now.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from

Stewardship Reflection

you.

Amen

That we may learn from the Apostles to give up our strong attachment to material possessions. "He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts." Mark 6:8 Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God's providential care. Think of all the material things "we can't live without" in today's world. We make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don't become "slaves" to wanting to acquire more things.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

WEDNESDAY-SUNDAY, JULY 17-21
National Eucharistic Congress
Indianapolis, IN

Please join us in praying for those who will gather in Indianapolis, IN for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress on July 17-21. Hundreds of participants from the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston will join an estimated 50,000 other attendees for five days of prayer, liturgies, music, workshops, speakers, and more. The gathering is a milestone moment of a three-year initiative of the USCCB designed to renew the Catholic Church in the U.S. by bringing forth an encounter with the living Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME<sup>(B)</sup> July 14, 2024

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. Mark 6:7

Lessons from ironing clothes and ministering to people

In today's Gospel, Jesus has already chosen the Twelve (Mark 3:14-19). He now sends them out, to preach the message of repentance. We must realize that while Jesus was physically on earth, He was very limited territorially. If our Lord was turning water into wine at a marriage celebration in Cana (John 2:1-12); He could not simultaneously be healing a blind man and telling him to wash in the Pool of Siloam (John 9:1-12). Cana is in Galilee and the Pool of Siloam is in Jerusalem.

The two locations are approximately 80 miles apart. Jesus sent the Twelve out in pairs. He gave them His authority and instructed them to preach repentance, cure those who were sick, and drive out demons. Jesus could now be in six different locations by working through these men. Jesus calls us to preach the Gospel to the lost, to bring His healing to those in need, to confront evil, and to forgive wrong. I want to illustrate this through the chore of ironing clothes.

I still iron clothes and the clothes I have in the basket to iron represent people. We all have wrinkles in our lives because we all have sinned (cf. Isaiah 53:6). The ironing board represents the Word of God. It's the preaching of the Gospel, that brings people to repentance. When you approach a person, you have to say, "God said in His Word, not to do this or not to do that."

The iron represents the church, and Christians make up the church. Before I start ironing, I must make sure that the iron is plugged into the power source. For us to do God's work, we are to be plugged up to Him; especially when confronting evil. You can't get a person right in your strength. It takes power to deal with people. Ephesians 6:10 says, "Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might." Jesus said, "Apart from Me, you can do nothing" John 15:5.

One day I was ironing some clothes and the wrinkles wouldn't come out. I discovered that there was no water in the iron's reservoir. I quickly filled the iron with water. Ephesians 5:18 commands us to "be filled with the Holy Spirit." In today's Second Reading, it tells the Christians that we "were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit" Ephesians 1:13. To straighten people out, you have to be filled with the Holy Spirit. When ironing, you must remember that all clothes are not the same material. On clothes irons, there is a dial that allows you to set the temperature according to the type of fabric. That means you can't deal with everybody the same way. Some folk are linen, others are cotton, and still others are wool or delicate silk. When dealing with different people, we must be flexible with our communication style. If you don't change the setting, you may be too harsh for someone very sensitive. Some people have left the church, because somebody else didn't change to the right setting. A part of discernment is being able to read people.

The final thing to do is press on. You may be getting weary of dealing with the same family members, child, spouse, co-worker, boss, neighbor, but continue to press on. We must remember that Jesus is returning for a church, "without spot or wrinkle" Ephesians 5:27. As we press on, we help people to remove their wrinkles, and prepare them and ourselves to Meet our Lord and Savior, Jesus, the Christ!
