SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In the first reading, Abraham and Sarah offer hospitality to three travelers, one of whom foresees a momentous event. For Paul, the momentous event is Christ winning us salvation, salvation that is offered to all. In the Gospel, sisters Martha and Mary offer hospitality to Jesus, but take on different roles while he visits. Let us show God's word hospitality, listening attentively and prayerfully.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Stewardship Reflection

That we have the courage to share our faith with those closest to us. "...I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God." Colossians 1:25 We are all called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CONFERENCE AT ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

Join a group of wonderful people like you, working together to serve our neighbors in need. See the people you help face to face and make a direct impact on their lives.

Anyone with a heart for service is welcome in the Society.

Our actions promote the dignity of the person and alleviate suffering and distress while addressing the conditions that cause them through systemic change.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (C)

July 20, 2025

Let us not just DO for Jesus, but let us BE with Him

Happy Sunday! In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus visits the home of Martha and Mary. Martha is busy with hospitality, serving the Lord and His disciples. Mary, on the other hand, simply sits at Jesus' feet and listens.

At first glance, it might seem like Martha is doing the right thing. After all, she's working hard to care for Jesus. But she's anxious, overwhelmed, and frustrated. And when she complains, Jesus gently responds: "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part..."

Jesus isn't criticizing Martha's service; He's inviting her to something deeper.

Mary understood that the most important thing wasn't doing for Jesus, it was being with Him.

Many of us live like Martha. We stay busy...even in our serving or our ministry. We serve others, volunteer at church, help our families. These are good things. But if we're not careful, we can become so preoccupied with serving that we forget to sit with the One we're serving.

Brothers and sisters, the main point is clear: let us not just DO for Jesus, but let us BE with Him.

This Gospel, when paired with last week's parable of the Good Samaritan, offers a balanced image of discipleship. Last week was about action, "go and do likewise." This week is about presence, 'come and sit with Me.'

Both are essential. But the foundation of everything we do must be our relationship with Jesus.

So how do we "be with Him"?

- Begin your day in prayer: even 10 quiet minutes can change your outlook.
- Read a short passage of Scripture and reflect.
- Pray the Rosary or spend time in Eucharistic Adoration.
- Most importantly, make time for stillness and listen.

Jesus doesn't just want your work. He wants your heart.

Let us not just do for Jesus, but let us be with Him. Amen.
