TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

God's preeminence is highlighted in today's reading. Isaiah proclaims that God was the force behind the pagan king Cyrus when he defeated the Babylonians and allowed the Chosen People to return to the promised land, even though he certainly didn't realize it. Paul tells the Thessalonians that God chose them in Christ. Finally, Jesus tells the Pharisees that they should comply with Caesar's tax, but it is more important to repay God for all God's gifts. So ought we, as we sing in the psalm, give the Lord glory and honor.

The Disciple Maker Index Survey is Open! Our parish is on a journey to know, love, and serve Christ as a parish community. Together we must embrace Christ's vision for missionary discipleship so our parish can thrive and be a place for others to grow together in faith. The very first step in this process involves assessing our greatest strengths and opportunities, and that is where the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) comes in! The DMI is an important survey tool that invites you to reflect on your discipleship journey.

Go to the following link to take the DMI survey today:

www.survey.catholicleaders.org/d/d03g8b

- Your input helps strengthen our parish
- Results help leadership prepare for the future
- A report of the findings will be shared with you

If you prefer a paper-copy, you may pick up your survey in the Lobby of the Church and the Harris Center. To submit the completed paper survey, please drop off in the Mail Drop. We are blessed in so many ways.

Please continue to pray for this intention and for the growth and protection of our parish.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.

Stewardship Reflection

That we realize we aren't "owners" of anything but merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's. - Matthew 22:21 Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second, especially our money.

As of October 13, 2026:
Goal - $79,872.00
Paid - $20,427.00
Owed - $59,445.00
Donors - 91

Youth Ministry will meet next Sunday, October 25th, and every fourth Sunday of the month, after the 10:00am Mass in the Harris Center Room 125.

ATTENDANCE

In-person Mass attendance on Saturday, October 10th and Sunday, October 12th was 505. Please join us via YouTube Livestream or bring a friend to come and worship with us in the church.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (A)

October 18, 2026

Give Unto God What Is God's

Happy Sunday! As a former United States Marine, I have always appreciated the expression "God, Country, Corps." Those three words represent an important order of priorities: God first, country second, and Corps third. While our responsibilities to our country and our professions are important, our first and greatest responsibility is always to God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is confronted by the Pharisees and the Herodians, two groups with opposing political loyalties who have joined forces to trap Him. They ask whether it is lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar. If Jesus supports the tax, He risks alienating those who resent Roman occupation. If He opposes it, He risks being accused of rebellion against Rome.

But Jesus refuses to fall into their trap. Instead, He asks to see the coin used to pay the tax and asks whose image appears on it. When they answer "Caesar's," Jesus responds, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

At first glance, this seems like a simple lesson about our responsibilities to government and to God. But Jesus is teaching us something much deeper.

The Roman coin bears the image of Caesar. But whose image do we bear?

Genesis tells us that God created humanity in His own image. Every human being, regardless of race, background, wealth, political affiliation, or social standing, bears the image of God.

Therefore, if the coin belongs to Caesar because it bears his image, we belong to God because we bear His image!

And what does God ask us to give Him?

Not simply our money, our time, or an hour of worship on Sunday. God asks us to give Him our hearts, our love, and our lives.

This message is especially important in today's world. We live in a society filled with competing demands for our loyalty and attention. Political divisions, professional ambitions, financial pressures, and personal desires can easily become the center of our lives.

We can become so consumed with worldly concerns that we forget our most important relationship: our relationship with God.

As Christians, we have responsibilities to our families, our communities, and our country. We should participate in civic life, work for justice, and contribute to the common good. But our loyalty to any institution, political party, or worldly pursuit must never supersede our loyalty to Jesus Christ.

Putting God first does not mean abandoning our earthly responsibilities. It means allowing our faith to guide how we fulfill them.

When we put God first, we become more loving spouses, more patient parents, more compassionate neighbors, and more responsible citizens. We begin to see others not through the lens of political differences or social status, but as brothers and sisters created in God's image.

St. Paul reminds us in today's second reading of the Thessalonians' "work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope." These qualities should be visible in our lives, not just on Sunday, but every day of the week.

This week, let us reflect on a simple question: Does the way I live reflect the image of God within me?

Do my words reflect His love? Do my actions reflect His mercy? Do my decisions reflect His will?

Jesus reminds us to give Caesar what belongs to Caesar. But let us never forget that our very lives belong to God.

Put God first and let everything else follow.
