TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's first reading, Ezekiel vividly contrasts the eventual fates of a virtuous person who turns belatedly to sin and a wicked person who turns away from sin to do what is right and just. In the same vein, Jesus presents two sons, one of whom promises obedience, but fails to follow through, while the other responds defiantly, but then has a change of heart. As we listen to God's word, let us ask ourselves where we often fall and how we can do better.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.

Stewardship Reflection

That we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! "Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves…" Philippians 2:3 Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends and those who make you angry.

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Everyone is invited to bring your pets to the Blessing of the Animals on Saturday, October 3rd at 2:00pm.

REFLECTIONS

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Cycle A)

As people prepare to cast their votes in November, candidates who are believed to be more likely to keep their campaign promises might be the favorites on the ballot. We appreciate people whose words match their actions. However, the gospel gives us a positive contrast, two sons whose words did not correspond with the way they eventually behaved. The first son said "no" to his father's request but eventually did the will of his father. The second son said "yes" but never did what his father asked.

Scripture shows us two kinds of people who would end up in the kingdom of heaven. The first are those who hear the word of God and receive it immediately, treasuring it and acting on it. The second, represented by the first son in the gospel, are those who would enter through many repentances. If we can, it is indeed beautiful to act on the word of God the moment we hear it. The point of today's Gospel is not to encourage spiritual laziness or putting off good works for the future, rather it gives hope to those who already find themselves in a state of life that is contrary to what God commands. God never shuts the door of grace, we can always repent, like the first son, and do what the Father commands. God does not operate in the same manner as we would choose our friends and allies, he does not choose only those who always keep their promises, but he also leaves the door open to those who say "no" at first, that the power of his mercy may draw them to say "yes."

Through a sincere introspection, we might come to see that we could be in a place or state that needs repentance. The sign of God's mercy has been given to us in the sacrament of reconciliation, because God wants us to always be in a state of friendship with him. In the gospel, we see the category of people whom Jesus said are entering the kingdom of God – Tax collectors and prostitutes – because they repented. What do I need to repent from? What is that thing occupying my time so much that I forget to do God's will? God is love, and his mercy is inexhaustible, let us turn to him and do his will.

Be the Neighbor Who Shows Up

FAITH IN ACTION AT ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

Many of our neighbors in Sunnyside are struggling. Reduced work hours, rising rents, and unexpected bills are putting families at risk of eviction and utility shut-offs. Together, we can help.

Your time and compassion can make a real difference.

Even one hour a week can help keep families in their homes and ensure their utilities stay on.

We Need Parishioners to Help with Home Visits

What is a home visit?

Two trained Vincentians visit a neighbor at their home to listen to their story, verify needs, and offer support. It's a chance to show compassion, share hope, and connect our neighbors with the help they need.

- Listen without judgment
- Learn about real needs
- Share information about resources
- Be a presence of Christ in our community
