THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

“I am who am,” God proclaims to Moses from the burning bush. In saying this, God claims to be existence itself—as the one who simply is. Jesus further reveals his Father in the parable we hear in the Gospel: God is prepared to cut down the unfruitful fig tree but is also willing to give it another change to bear fruit. We sing of this aspect of God in the responsorial psalm: “The Lord is kind and merciful.” Let this refrain comfort us as we hear of those who were unexpectedly and tragically struck down.

SOLEMNITY OF THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD

The Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord on Tuesday, March 25th. This feast celebrates the wondrous event that binds God and humanity forever. Christ the Word who becomes the Son of Mary, is enfleshed in her womb, making Mary the Mother of God. The liturgy celebrates the beginning of God's new redemptive work and recognizes Mary as the "new Eve", the obedient and faithful woman who generously agreed to be a participant in God's plan of salvation. May we imitate her generous and trusting commitment when she gave herself fully to God's mysterious ways.

ATTENDANCE

In-person Mass attendance on Saturday, March 15th and Sunday, March 16th was 478 and the 7:30am Sunday Mass Livestream received 58 views. Please join us via YouTube Livestream, or bring a friend to come worship with us in the church.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Stewardship Reflection

That we are generous with all of our gifts; nurture and develop them to return with increase. "He said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.'" - Luke 13:7 We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have, or do you generously share with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous; we are called to develop and nurture our gifts; and return them with increase. We are called to be generous with all of gifts; especially the one that means the most to you.

DSF Cry Out with JOY TO THE LORD!

To Cry Out with Joy to the Lord! is to recognize and thank Him for His abundant gifts. This joy springs from our grateful hearts and reminds us to pause and appreciate God's countless blessings – even the small, everyday miracles that reflect His love for us. As we cultivate gratitude, we create space for even greater joy in our lives. Please consider making your gift in the parish, or online at www.archgh.org/dsf, and join our mission to be Christ's hands and heart in our community.

Third Sunday of Lent (Year C)

March 23, 2025

As we enter the Third Week of Lent, we continue on our journey of repentance in preparation for the approach of the Celebration of Easter that commemorates the glorious Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Knowing that Jesus triumphed over the temptations in the desert, we are reminded that we too can triumph through our living faith in Jesus Christ as he is Transfigured before the disciples. The Father, implore us to listen and pay close attention to Jesus on our Journey of Life.

Therefore, today, it is appropriate to look at the nature of sin. By understanding how offensive it is to the eyes of God, we are then equipped with sufficient knowledge to decide if we will walk in His Holy ways or if we will reject His Divine grace in exchange for the sinful path of life.

First of all, I must ask, is there such a thing as a good sin? To answer that question, one must know the definition of sin. Sin is a transgression an offense against God. It is a crime against God! Why is it a crime against God? It is a crime against God because it is a rejection of God's Holy ways. Sin is the outcome of one's decision to have "his way" or "no way!" That is why a sin is a crime against God.

Now, I ask, is there such a thing as a good crime? Is one crime better than another? Is an assault on someone better than a robbery? Is adultery better than murder? Is lying better than stealing? Is disobedience better than being a party to an abortion?

During today's reading of the Gospel, Jesus addressed the nature of sin. He asked, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way, they were worse sinners than all other Galileans?" "Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them - do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem?"

What did Jesus answer? He said, "No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did." In other words, a sin is a sin! There is no such thing as a big sin versus a small sin. Nor is there such a thing as a good sin versus a bad sin. A sin is a sin! If you offend God, then you have offended God! You cannot walk away and say, "I did not offend God because it was a small sin." Nor can you say, "It is no big deal because it was a small sin." A sin is a transgression against God. To sin is to offend God, to reject His holy ways!

During today's Gospel Reading, Jesus gave a parable about the fig tree. Why did this parable immediately follow after Jesus explained that sin is offensive to God, that it deserves severe punishment? It is because Jesus wanted to point out the sin of indifference, the sin of neglect of one's responsibilities towards God.

In the parable that Jesus told, a man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard. When the man went to look at it for a fruit, he found none on it. The tree had now been without fruit for three consecutive years. Finally, tired of that useless tree, the man told the gardener to cut it down. Upon hearing this, the gardener asked the owner to patiently wait another year during which time he would dig around the tree and put manure on it in the hope that it would bear fruit. If that helps after one year and there are fruits on it, good; if not, then it should be cut down. In the parable, Jesus was talking about those who are indifferent to their salvation. He was talking about those who refuses to live their faith in Christ by performing good works, those who reject the grace of God the Father and the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit in the Most Holy Name of Jesus.

The man who planted the vineyard is the Lord Jesus. The fig tree in the garden is one of many. We Christians each represent one fig tree. In the parable, we heard what should be done with a fig tree that does not produce any fruits after three years. It should be cut down. In other words, the life should be withdrawn from it. It should be destroyed. It should be thrown into the fire to burn until there is nothing left of it.

Near the end of the Reading, we heard that the gardener begged mercy on behalf of the fig tree. He promised to nourish the tree in the hope of reviving, it so it will produce fruit. Who is this gardener that begged mercy of the man? In John 15:1, we learn that God the Father is the Vine-grower. He is the One who removes every branch that bear no fruit. Jesus is the true Vine Who gives life. Unless one abides in Jesus, he cannot bear fruit because apart from Him, they can do nothing. In other words, Jesus is the Gardener.

Based on this knowledge, we learn that Jesus, acts as our Mediator who begs the Heavenly Father to have mercy on behalf of those who do not bear fruit. Jesus promises to the Heavenly Father that He will shine even more graces upon those who have become indifferent to their salvation, those who have dulled their spiritual minds in order to reject the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit. And should it be that after another year, those who have rejected God's grace continue to reject Him, then let it be that God the Father will end their fruitless lives.

A Lenten Morning of Reflection for Women

WOMEN OF GOD: LOOK UP!

Speaker: Sister Odessa Stanford SFCC

Saturday, April 5 | 8:30 a.m.- 12:30 p.m. | Parish Hall

As women seeking to be faithful in our call to be disciples of Jesus Christ we must "look up." This beautiful season of quiet and reflection purges us to be women of hope as each day we undo knots for those we love and for ourselves. The spiritual process is never ending and filled with challenges. We must "look up." Let us spend this time together to be encouraged, empowered and ready to exhale beyond this Lenten season.
