SPOTLIGHTS

Literature: The Howlers are starting their once a month literary nights. All area book clubs and writing groups are invited to attend. The first 30 minutes will be either a meet and greet, or presentation by a local literary figure or group. Then the next hour and a half is set aside for clubs and groups to do what they do! If you will notify the Howlers ahead of time, we will reserve your group or club a table. If you are not affiliated with a group or club, then the Howlers will help you join or start one.

Podcasting: The Howlers have begun a partnership with the Lab on Dexter to start bringing periodic workshops on various topics. The first is How to Start a Podcast. Even if you have already started a podcast, you are welcome to attend, consider this a networking event for area podcasters as well. This workshop will take you step by step on how to go from an idea to a podcast widely available for anyone to listen to.

A Request: The Howlers are always looking for underserved niches of Montgomery culture. But if we don't know about it, we can't help it grow. Maybe you have an interest, that you think others share, but haven't been able to connect with. If you will let us know what sort of events you would like to see, we will try to make it happen! Take the fiber arts for example: someone reached out for one event, and now we have a monthly meetup starting in February. So please, email us your ideas, and let's make something happen!
