GUIDE TO VOLUNTEERING

Want to get involved in the community? Looking for something to do? Want to make new friends? Why not try volunteering at any of these great organizations.

River Region United Way

This organization partners with 40+ area groups, most of which would love your help.

www.rruw.org/volunteer

Montgomery Humane Society

The Humane society is always seeking more volunteers If you love animals this is a great choice.

montgomeryhumane.com

Common Ground Montgomery

Does tutoring and mentoring children sound up your alley? Then CGM sounds like a great place for you.

cgm.life/volunteer

The Capri Theatre

Love movies? Why not lend a hand at the Capri. Opened in July of 1941 as the Clover Theatre, it is now the longest continually operating movie theatre in Alabama.

www.capritheatre.org/

The Montgomery Food Bank

Is there any cause more important than ensuring people have enough to eat? It's hard to think of one....so why not lend a hand here.

montgomeryareafoodbank.org

Montgomery Zoo

Want to learn to take care of animals? Or maybe you have a teen that is looking at a career in animal care? The Zoo takes volunteers from teens to adults.

www.montgomeryzoo.com/

Meals on Wheels

Help feed the elderly, by volunteering to drive meals out weekly, twice monthly, or monthly.

www.macoa.org/volunteer

Alabama Archives

If history is more your thing, the Archives are looking for volunteers to do things like act as guides, help with collections, or man the desks.

archives.alabama.gov/

Rebuilding Together Central Alabama

Like to work with your hands, maybe building or painting? Why not help out at RTCA repairing homes for those in need.

www.rtbama.org/

Baptist Health

As the largest healthcare provider in the region, they have lots of volunteer opportunities.

Baptist Hospice - 334.747.5000, Baptist Medical Center East 334.747.9910, Baptist Medical Center South 334.747.2974, Montgomery Cancer Center 334.273.2265

THE HILLTOP HOWLERS

THE HILLTOP HOWLERS