Dear Children

I embrace the opportunity of writing you by Mrs Whitmarsh who intends visiting her friends that live near you. I have not heard any thing from you for more than a year but I have not forgotten you and to hear of your welfare always gives me much satisfaction therefore I hope you will not neglect writing to me whenever you have an opportunity I received a letter from Nelson a few weeks ago which informed me that your father, Brothers and sisters were all well. I have lately visited Cynthia who with her family are all in good health.

our friends in this Country are generally well and as for myself I am as well as a woman of my age can expect to be so as to be able to write and see the greater part of the time I should be glad to see you but never expect to unless you come and visit me I must now conclude with the best wishes for your prosperity and happiness and remains your affectionate Mother Pruth Tibbets.
