

Bald Eagle

Did you know, Bald
Eagles mainly eat fish?
Bald Eagles are also scavengers, eating roadkill and even stealing food from other animals!

Turkey Vulture

Did you know,
Turkey Vultures help prevent disease?
These birds are nature's clean-up crew removing carcasses that could make other animals
or people sick!

Great Horned Owl

Did you know, Great Horned Owls head feather tufts aren't ears? These feathers help with camouflage.

Barred Owl

Did you know, A Barred Owl's call sounds like someone saying "Who cooks for you? Who cooks for you all?"

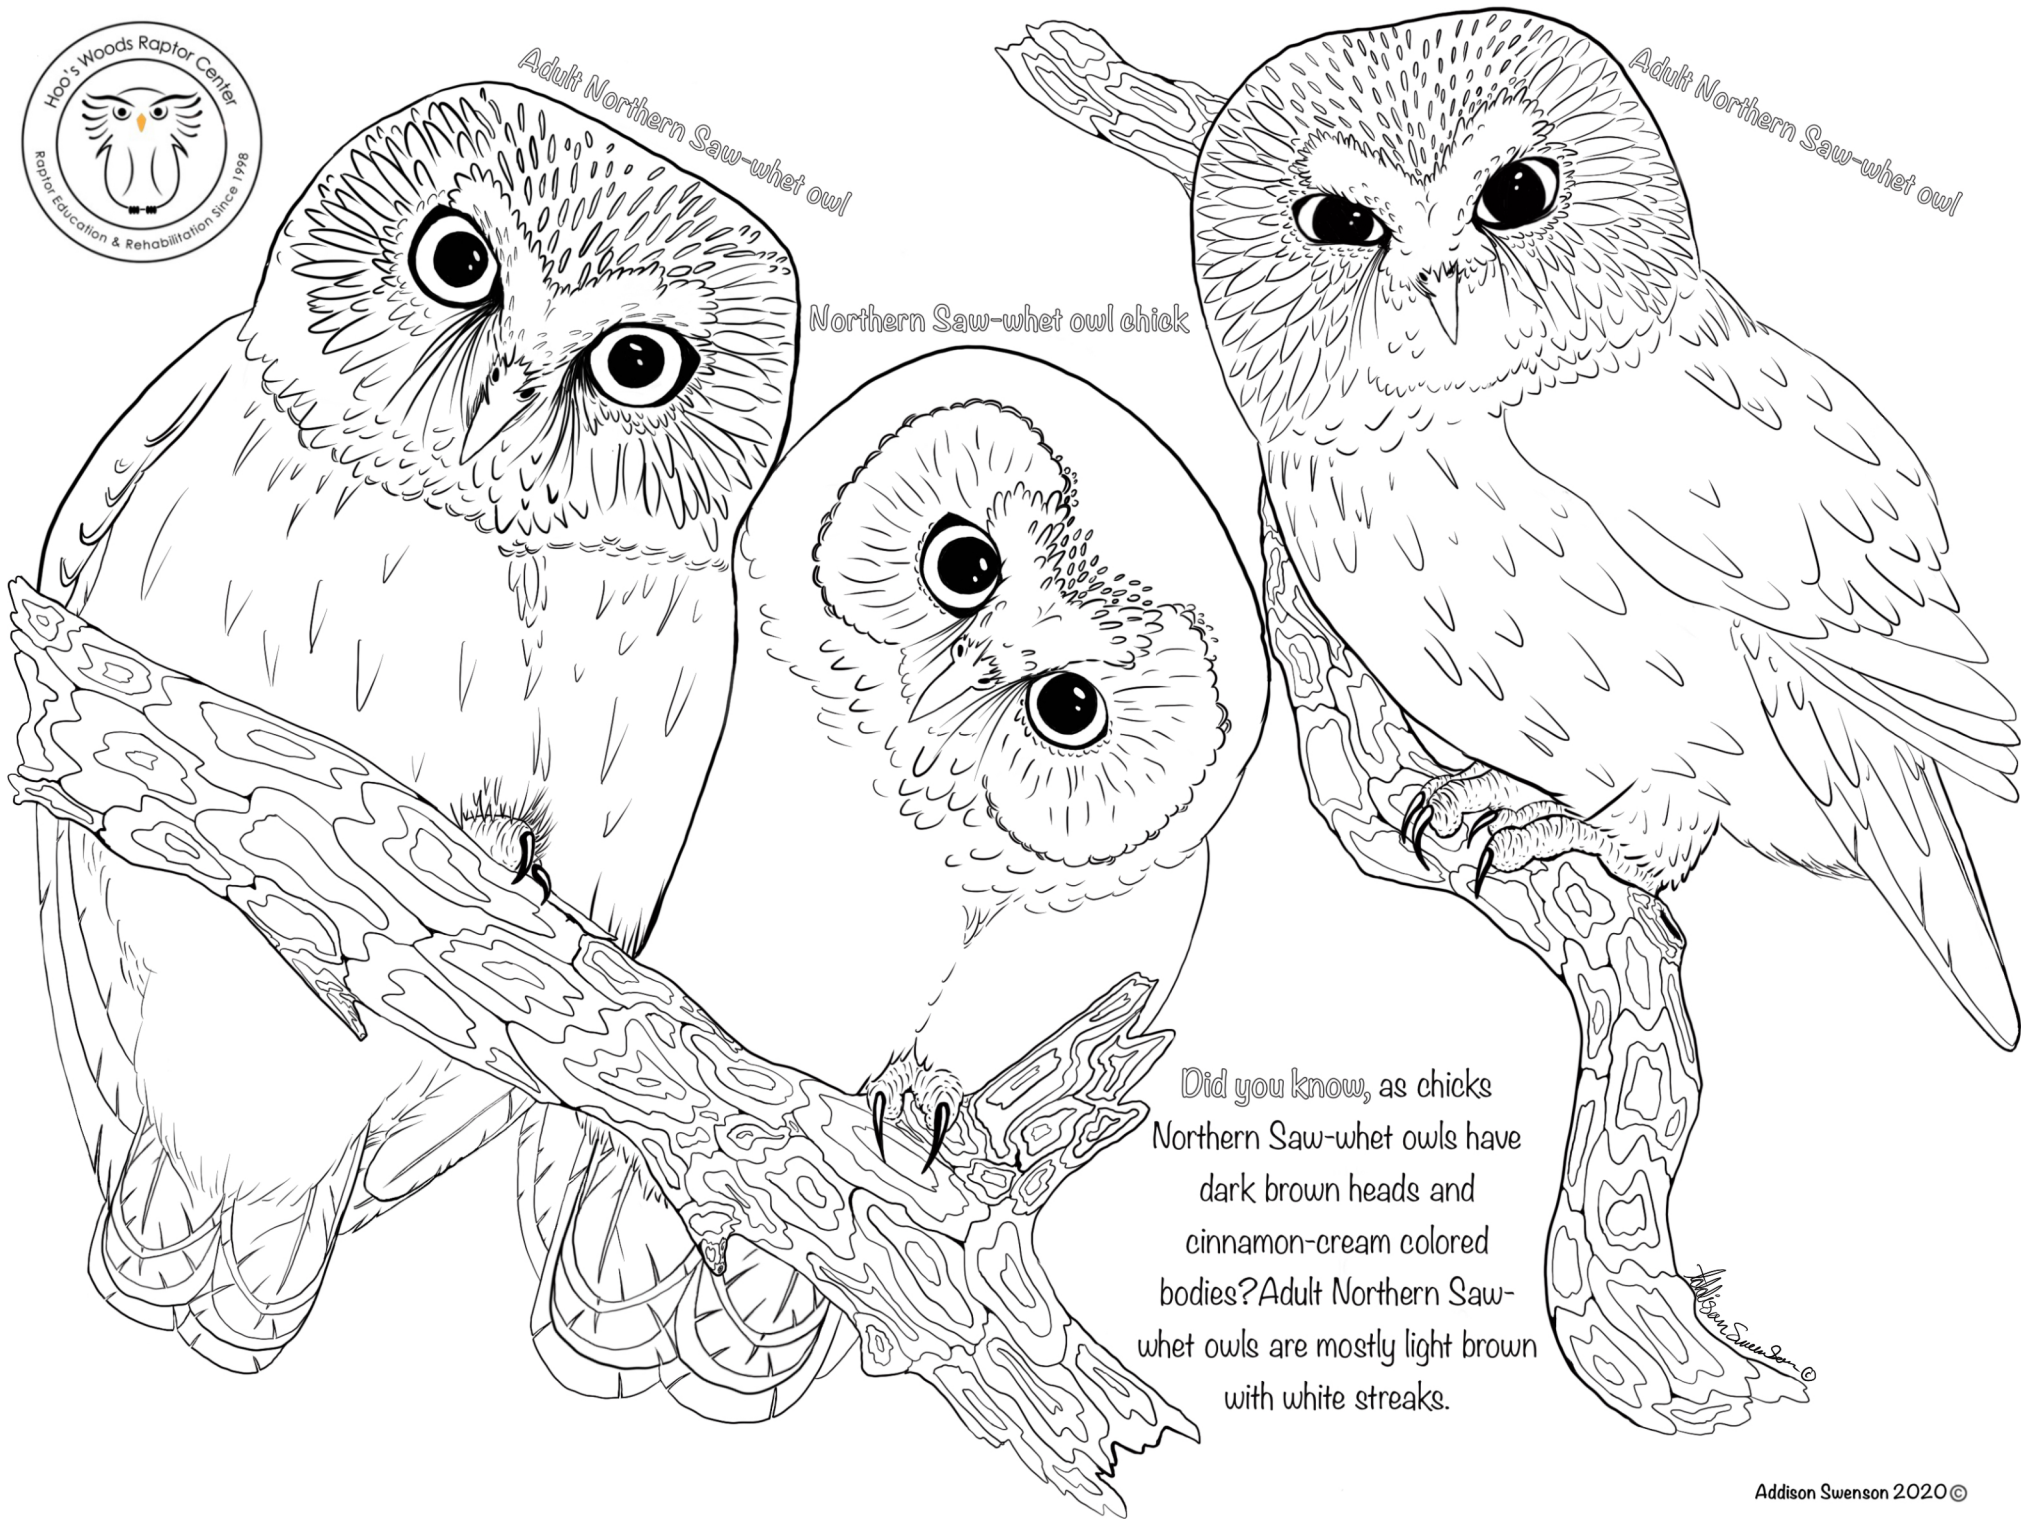

Adult Northern Saw-whet owl

Adult Northern Saw-whet owl

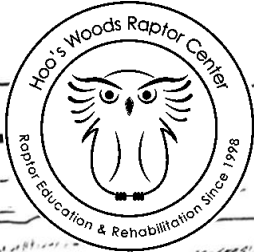

Northern Saw-whet owl chick

Did you know, as chicks Northern Saw-whet owls have dark brown heads and cinnamon-cream colored bodies? Adult Northern Saw-whet owls are mostly light brown with white streaks.

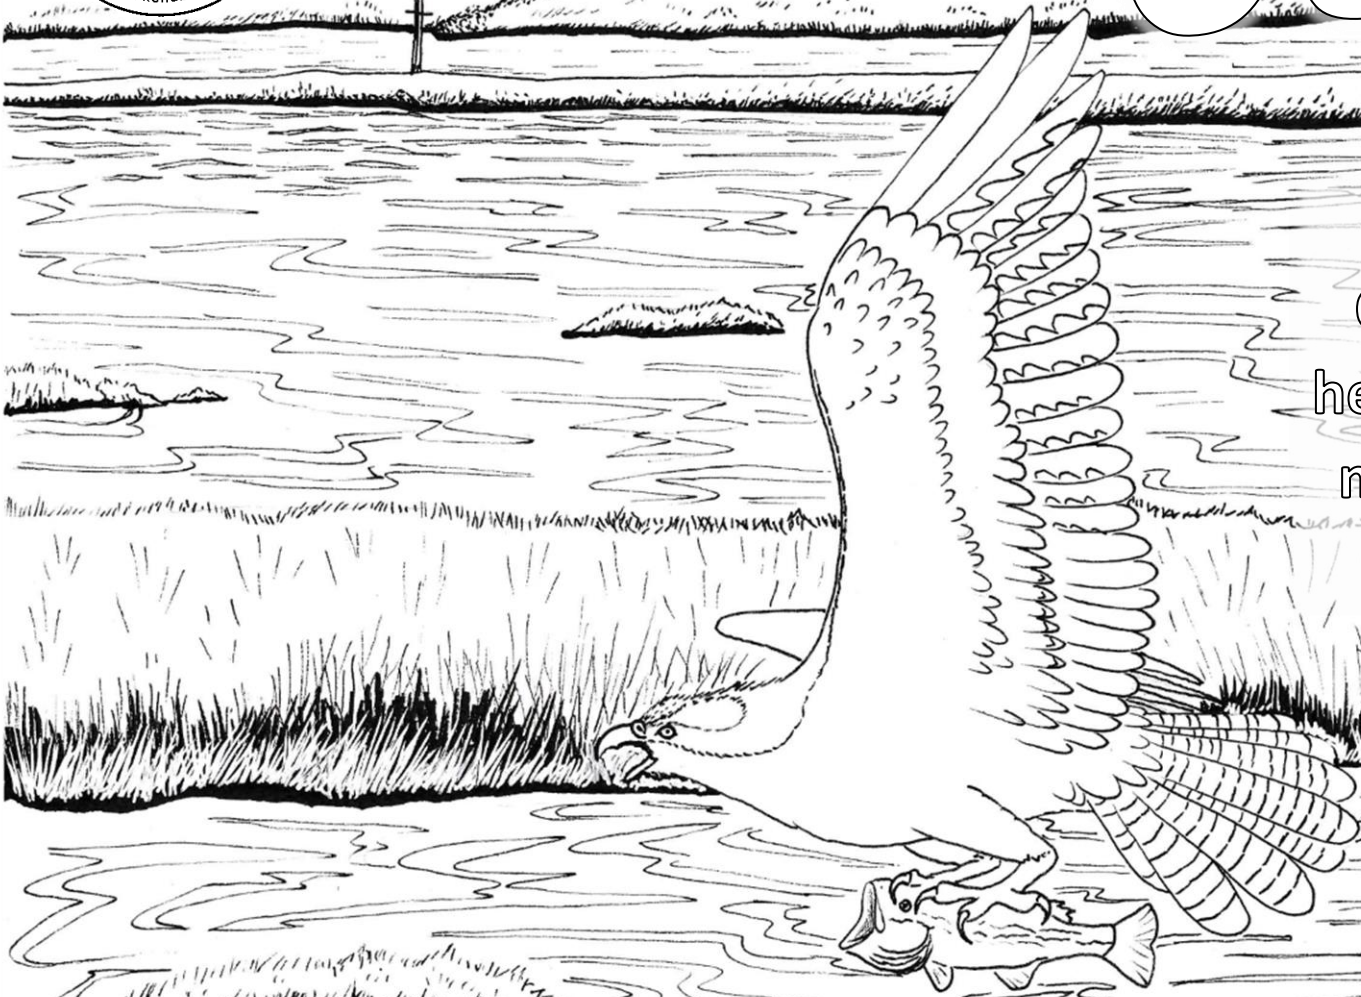

Addison Swenson

Osprey

Did you know,
Osprey will hold fish
headfirst to make them more aerodynamic as they fly?

Peregrine Falcon

Did you know, the peregrine falcon is the fastest animal on earth? Peregrine falcons can dive at over 200 miles per hour!