MORE ABOUT LITTLE LEARNERS: TN EARLY CHILDHOOD CLASSES

Welcome, Little Learners!

At True North, we know the early childhood years are an incredibly important time for laying a foundation of lifelong learning. It is a time when play dominates the learning process, and natural curiosity and exploration are the best teachers. We know that children are born learners, eager to explore their environments, and that play is actually very important work!

This year at True North, we wanted to focus on making a dedicated space for our littlest learners to play, a space that would further ignite their curiosity, and a space that would help activate their own natural desire to learn. That's why we have created 'Little Learners'; a new class structure for our littlest learners at True North.

'Little Learners' will encompass our Early Childhood Classes at True North; serving our 3s Class, 4s Class, and 5s Class. We will have a dedicated, individual classroom for each age group—their "Homerom"—that will be overseen by their Lead Teacher, and their Assistant Teachers. But, during the entirety of our Wednesday class time, each age group will also have Activity Rotation Time where they will rotate through 3 additional classrooms and unique learning environments: 'Learning Lab', 'Tinker Town', and 'Move & Groove'.

Your child will begin their day in their Homerom, then after a 'Welcome Circle', they will begin their Activity Rotation Time, traveling with their Assistant Teachers to 'Learning Lab', 'Tinker Town', and 'Move & Groove'. *Their Lead Teacher will hang back in their Homerom, to welcome the other rotating age groups and to facilitate their assigned Activity Rotation. During Activity Rotation Time, your child will spend approximately 30min in each class (45min with transition times built-in) engaged in age-appropriate, hands-on activities, that are play-based and FUN! Then, they will rotate back to their Homerom for a 'Snack and Storytime' and to complete their final rotation activity. Each day will end with a 'Wrap-Up Circle' in their Homerom, before Parent Pick-Up.

Below is the Rotation Schedule so you can see how we will be moving our little learners through alllll the fun things!

When you sign up, keep in mind your child's stamina/ability for a longer production. They do NOT need to be a character in order to participate. If they prefer to be in the ensemble, there are SO MANY wonderful songs for them to sing and dance in. Auditions will be held the first day of co-op after classes and lunch.

Class Cost: $135 per semester. Breakdown Cost Per Week: $11.25

*Price includes costumes, T-shirt, script, set, props, projections, theater rental, programs, copyright/licensing, videography, etc. *For any of our drama families with more than one drama student, financial need-based scholarships are available. 3. Each student will be responsible for practicing and memorizing their lines, songs, and choreography at home. The lines needed each week are REQUIRED to be memorized BEFORE each class period. This is a slight change due to the show being a Junior production. We will have a detailed schedule of weekly plans so you will know where in the script we are at.
