

ColoradoArtShows.com – Cancellation Policy (Legal Clause Version)

1. Cancellation by Artist (More Than 60 Days Before Event).

All Artist cancellations must be submitted in writing, via email or certified communication. Cancellations received sixty (60) days or more prior to the scheduled event date are not eligible for a refund of any kind. Upon timely cancellation, Artist shall be issued a non-transferable show credit, equal to booth fees paid, valid for a period of two (2) years from the date of issuance and redeemable solely toward a future invitation extended by ColoradoArtShows.com. Application fees are strictly non-refundable.

2. Cancellation by Artist (Within 60 Days of Event).

Cancellations submitted fewer than sixty (60) days prior to the event date shall result in the forfeiture of all fees paid, with no credit issued. Artist acknowledges and agrees that they remain fully liable for any outstanding balance due, and such balance shall be paid in full irrespective of Artist's attendance.

3. Refunds and Event Cancellation.

Artist shall remain financially responsible for any outstanding balance owed as of the date of cancellation.

4. Emergency Exception.

ColoradoArtShows.com may, in its sole and exclusive discretion, review requests for refund consideration in cases involving immediate, life-threatening emergencies affecting the primary Artist, Artist's spouse, or Artist's immediate children. ColoradoArtShows.com may require submission of supporting documentation. Consideration of such requests is voluntary, non-precedential, and shall not be construed as a waiver of any provision of this policy.

5. Future Participation Restrictions; Chargebacks.

(a) Any Artist who fails to satisfy an outstanding balance arising from a late cancellation, non-attendance, or disruption of participation shall be prohibited from exhibiting in any future ColoradoArtShows.com events until all such amounts are paid in full.

This action is final, non-negotiable, and irrevocable.
