Do you know how your club began?? The story of your clubs beginning is something every club member should know. Why not tell Me your story for this years Woman's History project.

Who are the women who started your club? What was their first project? Write it down, video it, submit it for your report.

I look forward to reading your story.

Karen Adams GFWC- SC Woman's History and Resource Center