

2025 – Saturday, September 27th

One Day. One Purpose. Countless Lives Touched.

Where can you raise awareness or help prevent domestic and sexual violence abuse in your community? Think outside the box, the possibilities are endless, help is needed in so many areas.

If you have not chosen an activity, please visit GFWC's Member Portal:

<https://memberportal.gfwc.org/> for ideas

or check out past issues of GFWC News & Notes or GFWC-SC Clubwoman

Speak out across South Carolina – Be a voice for victims & survivors

United to End Domestic & Sexual Violence

Here are 10 creative project ideas . . .

Remember, the battle against domestic violence is not just fought in shelters and courtrooms; it's fought in the hearts and minds of clubs and communities.

*By participating in these initiatives, you're not just raising funds; you're raising hope!

- Collect new or gently used jewelry and distribute to children to give their mother who is in a Domestic Violence Program.
- Provide hygiene bags to a safe house for clients as they come out of abusive situations.
- Provide personal and housewarming items for clients who may have had to leave everything behind.
- Host a Charity Cookbook Sale. This involves compiling a cookbook with recipes donated by local chefs, celebrities, or family favorites from club/community members. Each recipe comes with a story or a message of hope.
- Provide information in your club's monthly newsletter regarding all forms of Domestic and Sexual Violence
- Wear purple the entire month of October and promote this in your community.
- Host a Domestic Violence walk in your community
- Host a community gift card drive to benefit your local shelter.
- Public Awareness Campaign
- Provide a Scholarship to a Domestic Violence Survivor