PRIVACY POLICY

December 2022

1. PART 1 – ABOUT THIS POLICY

1.1: Purpose

River Speech is committed to protecting the privacy of personal information we collect and hold about individuals.

River Speech complies with the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), other privacy laws that govern how private sector health service providers like River Speech handle your personal information (including your health information), and Speech Pathology Australia's Code of Ethics (2010).

This Privacy Policy explains how River Speech manages the personal information we collect, use and disclose.

River Speech is a private speech pathology practice under the ownership of Kate Slee.

2. PART 2 – HOW RIVER SPEECH HANDLES YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

2.1: River Speech's Legal Obligations

In order to provide you with the health care services that you have requested, River Speech will need to collect and use your personal information. If you provide incomplete or inaccurate information to us or withhold personal and health information from us, we may not be able to provide you with the services you are seeking.

2.2: What information does River Speech collect?

We will only collect the information we need to be able to provide you with quality speech pathology assessment and therapy services.

We collect information from you that is necessary to provide you with speech pathology services and to manage our relationship with you. The information we collect includes: your child's name, your child's date of birth, address, phone number, health fund details and information about your child's health history and family history. We may also request current and/or previous correspondence from other health care providers involved in your child's care. If your child is eligible for any government funding packages, we will require you to provide us with the relevant paperwork for this. We require this information to assist the Speech Pathologist to diagnose and treat you.

2.3: How does River Speech collect health information?

We will usually collect your health information directly from you – this will occur over the phone or during the initial appointment. Some of the demographic information may initially be collected via the online referral form. Sometimes, we may need to collect information about you from a third party (such as a relative or another health service provider).

2.4: How does River Speech use your information?

River Speech uses your personal information for the purpose you have given the information to us. We will use your information to provide speech pathology services to you, to manage our relationship with you and to contact you in relation to matters concerning your care. We may also use your information for other purposes permitted under the Privacy Act 1988.

Who might we disclose your information to?

We may disclose your information to the following people:

(a) disclosure to other health professionals involved in your treatment

Your personal information will generally only be used by the Speech Pathologist involved in your care, however on occasion your care may be provided by a number of health professionals (for example, Speech Pathologist, Occupational Therapist and/or Psychologist) working or consulting together. We may disclose your information to these health professionals as part of the process of providing your care and to other health professionals involved in your care.

(b) the referrer

River Speech will usually send a summary of results and/or discharge summary to the referrer (i.e., your general practitioner [GP], Paediatrician or Child and Family Health Nurse) following assessment or discharge from River Speech, or at other times, as required for your care.

If you do not wish us to provide a copy of your service summaries to the referrer you must let us know. Also, if the referrer's details have changed, please let us know.

(c) Relatives, guardian, close friends or legal representative

We may provide information about your child's diagnosis to grandparents, other relatives, close personal friends and/or guardians who have shared care of your child unless you tell us that you do not wish us to disclose your child's diagnosis or health information to any such person.

Other uses and disclosures

In order to provide the best possible environment in which to treat you, we may also use or disclose your child's personal and health information where necessary for:

- activities such as quality assurance processes, accreditation, audits, risk and claims management, patient satisfaction surveys and staff education and training;
- invoicing, billing and account management;
- to liaise with your health fund or Medicare and where required provide information to your health fund or Medicare to verify treatment provided to your child;
- the purpose of sending you standard reminders, for example for appointments and follow-up care, by text message or email to the number or address which you have provided to us.

(f) Other uses with your consent

With your consent we may also use your information for other purposes such as including you on a marketing mail list, or research. Please note, however, that unless you provide us with your express consent for this purpose, we will not use your information in this way. We will not disclose your personal information to any individual who is outside Australia.

2.5: Access to and correction of your child's health information

You have a right to access the personal and health information that we hold about your child. You can also request an amendment to your child's personal and health information should you believe that it is inaccurate.

If we do not agree to change your child's medical record/personal information in accordance with your request, we will permit you to make a statement of the requested changes and we will enclose this with your record.

Should you wish to obtain access to or request changes to your child's health record you can ask for our Privacy Officer (see details below) who can give you more detailed information about River Speech's access and correction procedure.

Please note that River Speech may recover reasonable costs associated with supplying this information to you.

2.6: Data Quality

River Speech will take reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information which we may collect, use or disclose is accurate, complete and up-to-date.

2.7: Data Security

River Speech will take reasonable steps to protect your child's personal information from misuse, interference, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. We use technologies and processes such as access control procedures, network firewalls, encryption and physical security to protect your privacy.

River Speech will destroy or permanently de-identify any of your child's information which is in its possession or control and which is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was collected provided River Speech is not required under an Australian law or court/tribunal or otherwise to retain the information.

2.8: What to do if you have a complaint about privacy issues

If:

- (a) you have questions or comments about this Privacy Policy;
- (b) River Speech does not agree to provide you with access to your child's personal information; or
- (c) you have or a complaint about our information handling practices,

You can lodge a complaint with or contact our Privacy Officer on the details below. We will promptly review your complaint and provide a response to you.

2.9: How to contact us if you have a complaint about privacy issues
