

WATER STAKEHOLDER INPUT WORKSHOPS

The Indiana Department of Natural Resources is inviting stakeholders to participate in a series of water planning workshops across the state. The purpose of the workshops is to collect stakeholder input, ideas, and information to help inform the development of a statewide water inventory and management plan under Governor Braun's Executive Order 25-63: Statewide water inventory and management plan.

Attendees will be updated on the progress of the effort and will be asked for input on developing a regional water planning framework, enhancing Indiana's water monitoring networks, and creating an online water data and management platform.

Who should attend?

The types of stakeholders will vary by region, but representatives of the following groups are encouraged to attend and provide input

- City/Town/County Officials
- Economic Development Groups
- Basin Commissions, Drainage Boards
- Soil and Water Conservation Districts
- Non-Government Organizations
- Academic and Research Institutions
- Federal and State Agencies
- Water and Wastewater Utilities
- Power Generation
- Industrial and Commercial Users
- Agricultural Users
- Domestic Users
- Fish and Wildlife Interests
- Recreational Users
