Notes:

This advertisement is a model manservant skillset for WitSEC Protectees. It may be modified for your unique language needs, medical specialties, and preferred professionally prepared cuisine (e.g. Trained in New-American Food, French Food, or trained Pastry Chef...). The employer may also modify it for either a her or a him to work for the employer. Redress Grievance knows CRNP's to be highly qualified medical practitioners who simply don't perform specialty surgery. A CRNP who oversees an RN/BSN or Home Healthcare Aid can make sure the Protectee dies at home, under Specialty Geriatric Care, working as long as s/he can think for the United States and her allies.

The Relevant Story of Henry Hill, of fame from the American movie "The Goodfellas":

Henry Hill was a Mob Enforcer provably responsible for personally brutally murdering and torturing to death over 50 people. He was a regular cocaine abuser. He was a self-made cash money millionaire at the top of the 5 families hierarchy at the time the United States Secured Him about 1975. His criminal career and drug abuse was coming to an end. He was the sin qua non star-witness of making over 50 RICO cases stick against the Italian Mob and Mob Associates in NYC in trials that stretched from ca. 1975 to 1980. He was placed into United States Witness Security ca. AD 1975 in Ordinary Time on Earth. He was not just wanted in the program for a few years, to be released an unknown nobody far away elsewhere in the country with an agreement to never leave "Boise, Idaho" after being transplanted from NYC, NY, after completing his work testifying for the United States Government, as some 5-10 year serious protectees are similarly transplanted and cut loose from WitSEC (with maybe $3 Million in the bank, being given an house they can afford to keep, a new identity, and strict life-or-death instruction they'll survive if they never re-enter their old life). Henry Hill until his dying day was an expert safe cracker, who did things the United States Government couldn't. He was an absolute wizard at all things locks and safes. The United States paid Henry Hill prevailing wage in WitSEC and employed him (actually until he could no longer work) and secured him not only for the over 50 Guilty Verdicts his testimony secured over 5 years' of trials, but also because he cracked safes the United States Couldn't, which was a very valuable ongoing skill to the United States so valuable the United States offered to keep him in security to keep it available to the United States.

Henry Hill left WitSEC ca. AD 1990 against the advice of the United States and died of old age not in the program. Most people do not want to be in WitSEC. Most people do not adapt well to living practically all the time on a live-and-work compound they're only pre-approved to leave for vital medicine and keeping holy the sabbath. If you have no ongoing salable skill to the United States, you're not wanted in WitSEC forever, is always going to be the United States Statement to You. You can get out of WitSEC. FBI are trained in cutting loose protectees over years of study for their safe relocation. You may get no choice in where you're relocated to.

If you're ever involuntarily secured instead of being left to die at the hands of the hitman/foreign governments' assassins, you'll be compensated prevailing wage for your true efforts serving United States Needs, and if you complain you'll be left to die at the hands of the hitman. Henry Hill did a thorough and personal security analysis over his years of being a protected witness, and decided he'd take his chances on his own, rather than be restricted by the dictates of the program, his survival outside the program being his own opinion. The United States admits, Henry Hill made it to die of old age, against the advice of the United States, who believed he needed secured at the time Henry Hill voluntarily abandoned the Program.

Most mob bosses know WitSEC is dangerous living. The United States is now publishing at <https://RedressGrievance.org> it is Redress Grievance's last knowledge 2 in 3 secured witnesses end up dead before they're secured a full 5 years. Making it in security as an primary secured party over 5 full years denotes the protectee a long-term survivor likely to die of old age in security. For a Heavy Loss, such as a Star Witness or invaluable employee (like a state Governor) 15-20 years in Security can get you safely cut loose with relocation assistance coupled with being forgotten in time.

This statistic of 2 in 3 end up dead before their first full 5 years is calculated from among any person the United States has secured for a lifetime to James A. Blatt's knowledge, including the first family and Vice President's family since approximately Lincoln established the Secret Service⁴. It's so serious when foreign intelligence agencies try their hearts out in the sneakiest most convoluted of ways to get through, on life-or-death missions to kill protectees, their family, and their friends. A Heavy Loss, such as this advertisement seeks to employ, being only a replaceable professional service, is known to Redress Grievance as safer than the family and friends who support the Primary Secured Party's mental, emotional, and physical well being in an ongoing way. Fitting this skillset and being employed by a protectee inevitably gets the CRNP secured on at least a 10-20 year plan and we seek applicants willing to commit to this timetable for continuous working and ending up forgotten before relocation. Like to Henry Hill, it does not rule out retirement in free society with millions in the bank.

Effective already, The Secret Service is forever disbanded and dissolved. There is no more Secret Service in the United States of America. All protective custody is performed by the FBI and United States Marshal's Service.

Most people have thought about WitSEC at some point in their lives. Beware! Most ordinary people are rightfully scared to death at the thought of daily interaction with federal agents. Most ordinary people are rightfully scared to death of any contact with their Federal Government, much less ongoing. Most ordinary people refuse to go under the gun on a lie detector about their whole life story, expounding every detail and every contact they've ever made to the best of their ability. Most ordinary people don't succeed at never leaving a live and work compound they're stashed at in total secrecy and never talking about their work or to anybody they ever knew again. Most people in WitSEC are not publicly known as being secured witnesses. They're advised at gunpoint to start whole new lives and reveal no detail that could expose either the fact they're in security or the reason they're in security. Most people can't do this over years, and end up inevitably dead, among those both publicly known to be in security (who must live hard-as-a-rock lives) and among those involuntarily secured and stashed in total secret somewhere safe to survive. WitSEC at its core is about solitary survival. Family members are preferred left behind. The protectees spouse is usually excepted. Protectees friends are other protectees and professional contacts, who become close personal friends, and personal acquaintances encompass little more contact than fleeting pleasantries or sex-dates. This is the normal for long-term serious protectees. We endeavor to work remotely as often as possible from highly secure areas.

FBI Protective Custody Personnel only die for the primary secured party. A Heavy Loss is a primary secured party, as this skillset seeks for WitSEC protectees. With care and prudence, you can survive as a primary secured party.

It's real serious to have "Federal Agents!" or "FBI!" appear daily around you both in person and in telepathy, monitoring you both in person and in telepathy in every moment for as long as you're in the program. FBI do not secure criminals. The FBI are still the finest, most incorruptible, most highly trained, educated, able and intelligent law enforcement officers in the United States. Do not interfere with identified FBI or Federal Agents on the job, at your own risk. They're just doing their job. You must presume they're not your friend, although they can be friendly, and are to never be bothered when they're working. If you're a Protectee your life is at grave risk if you distract your protective custody detail outside of known security.

Badgering the United States Government, presenting while drunk or on drugs to any federal officer or officeholder, or being indiscreetly stupid in a way the United States finds offensive will get you audited by state and federal tax authorities for the rest of your life is the beginning of the United States Government's retaliatory efforts against persons wasting the United States time. Beware! Unsolicited contact may or may not be read, or heard, by your government. We prefer to talk to clergy representing the people and tenured faculty at the colleges and universities for expert advice and opinions of governmental need.

If you're a Protectee reading this or an interested servicemember or private deep pocket, the contract completion bonus is the amount of the bounty on the Protectees head. Thus the manservant knows the big money is in legally completing the contract year over year, for as long as s/he signs up to work.⁵ It will be no secret in short time to your manservant federal agents contact you an awful lot, multiple times per day, and it will slip you're in security, in very short time, if you're the employer. Also, write in the employment contract if the manservant is liable in your death, they do not receive the contract completion bonus (e.g. if they're civilly liable for your wrongful death or in any way responsible for killing you, they do not receive the contract completion bonus and will be prosecuted. This incentives good medicine. This disincentives negligent medicine. The contract completion bonus is paid if the bad guy gets you or otherwise die and the employee is not at fault in early release from the contract's obligations of her.)

If you're a CRNP, the above skillset (as a trained personal chef, spotless cleaner, property manager, and CRNP) merits pay up to about USD 1.5 Million per annum with your medical liability insurance picked up by the employer about the 10th- 15th year of service. Employment in this position for a WitSEC protectee is considered Hazardous Duty. Being in WitSEC on duty is considered per se Hazardous Duty.

For military personnel, we can close out your contract (at the lieutenant colonel level or higher rank is preferred for this skillset) or keep you on your military contract in private employment for United States parties, depending on employer and United States need. DOD has a General who oversees placement of fit servicemembers from any branch into private work with United States Parties and Contractors, both on and off service contracts, for private pay. This is an ideal skillset for a USD $1+ Million per annum job.

The United States seeks CRNP's and Qualified Physicians' Assistants trained in this skillset with distinguished careers of honorable service behind them of at least 20 impeccable years.

Medical Doctors make USD $1 Million or more per annum by performing specialty surgery.

Humbly yours,

December 10, 2021

Redress Grievance

⁵ It is so complex for any person to actually receive and benefit from blood money that most people – even incredibly intelligent people – fail at doing it. As of right now (12.10.2021) this author knows of no way to actually receive and benefit from blood money anywhere on Earth without 100% of it being tracked and seized. It's long enforced United States Policy that no person benefit from blood money paid for a United States Protectee.
