INDEPENDENCE DAY OR THE 4TH OF JULY – A BIT OF HISTORY

On July 2nd, the Continental Congress voted in favor of Lee's resolution for independence in a near-unanimous vote (the New York delegation abstained but later voted affirmatively). On that day, John Adams wrote to his wife Abigail that July 2 "will be celebrated, by succeeding Generations, as the great anniversary Festival" and that the celebration should include "Pomp and Pa-rade...Games, Sports, Bells, Bonfires and Illuminations from one End of this Continent to the other."

On July 4th, the Continental Congress formally adopted the Declaration of Independence, which had been written largely by Jefferson. Though the vote for actual independence took place on July 2nd, from then on the 4th became the day that was celebrated as the birth of American independence.

HAVE A HAPPY 4TH OF JULY.....
ENJOY THE DAY AND STAY SAFE!

FREEDOM

Freedom is not the right to do whatever we want.

It is the privilege of doing what we ought.

It is not private license; it is public responsibility.

It is not freeing ourselves; it is binding ourselves for the good of all

Bishop Robert R Brown

THE GOOD OL' DAYS

Comedian Sam Levenson once said: "When my immigrant father came over here from the old country, he found out three things: that the streets were not paved with gold; that most of the streets were not even paved; that he had to help pave them."

ELDERLY EXERCISE INSIGHTS

1. It is well documented that for every mile that you jog, you add one minute to your life. This enables you at 85 years old to spend an additional 5 months in a nursing home at $5,000 per month.
2. My grandmother started walking five miles a day when she was 60. She's 97 now and we don't know where on earth she is!
3. The only reason I would take up jogging is so that I could hear heavy breathing again.
4. I joined a health club last year, spent about 400 bucks. Haven't lost a pound! Apparently, you have to show up.
5. I have to exercise early in the morning before my brain figures out what I'm doing.
6. If you are going to try cross-country skiing, I suggest you start with a small country.
7. I like long walks, especially when they are taken by people who annoy me.
