ACCREDITATION FAQ'S

What is accreditation and why is it important to have my training school accredited?

When you will be teaching students, you will need to issue them with certificates once they have completed the training with you. For this certificate to be able to be used for insurance purposes, it requires a stamp of approval so that your students know they are able to obtain insurance which will then allow them to work on clients by buying public liability insurance. This will not be possible if you are not registered and approved with an accrediting body such as ourselves.

The accreditation process allows the British Group of Professional Beauty Therapists to check and ensure that the content of each course being offered by you meets our insurance requirements in order to be able to offer your students insurance once they have completed your training.

What qualifications will I need?

All tutors need to be members of the British Beauty Group and must be qualified in the subject they wish to teach. They must also hold a recognised teaching qualification.

Who issues certificates to my students when they have completed my training?

You will be issuing your own certificates to your students once you are satisfied that they are competent enough in carrying out what they have been taught. We will require an example of the certificate you will be issuing to your students and it must have our stamp (logo) on it.

Do you accept courses accredited by other organizations?

All applications are processed on an individual case basis. We will look at your application and let you know about this at the time of application.

How long will it take for the accreditation process?

Upon receiving your application, the accreditation process should be complete within 21 working days. In the case where further information may be required from you, this may take slightly longer.

Does my training have to be carried out at one fixed location?

You do not have to operate from one place as long as the same content is included and the same procedures are followed. This therefore allows you to operate anywhere in the UK including teaching at other individual salons/venues.

What information do I need to send you?

You will need to provide us with the following in order for us to process your application:

- All certificates of qualifications
- Your teaching qualification
- The course syllabus outline
- All manuals/handbooks/textbooks that you will be issuing to your students
- A sample of the certificate that you will be giving out to your students once they have completed your training.
- The completed forms in this application pack.

Please note that we only require copies of the above, not the originals.

The above can either be sent to us electronically via email by scanning in your documents or you may submit your application by post and send it to:
The British Group of Professional Beauty Therapists, 100 Pall Mall, St James, London, SW1Y 5NQ

Refusal or cancellation of Accreditation

Please note that the British Group of Professional Beauty Therapists reserve the right to refuse or withdraw accreditation at any time and the decision will be final.

What if I still have more questions?

Please kindly contact us by email info@britishbeautygroup.co.uk.

TEACHING COURSE

Preparing to Teach in the Lifelong Learning Sector (PTLLS) Level 4 - £349

The PTLLS qualification is a recognised teaching qualification that you must enrol on to in order to become an accredited trainer.

The PTLLS course is an intensive teaching training course. It is a minimum requirement for beauty therapists to hold this qualification who wish to teach beauty.

This course is available as a distance learning course in which you will be asked to complete various assignments which will need to be submitted to your tutor online. Once this is complete you will be required to attend a one off micro teaching session. Details of the micro teaching sessions will be provided by your tutor with fortnightly dates & locations that you can attend.

| AWARDING ORGANISATIONS CITY & GUILDS / HIGHFIELD ABC (HABC) | RESULT TURNAROUND TIME 10 Working Days After Successful Completion of Assignments | VENUE Harrow, London or Croydon, London | DURATION OVERALL (MICRO TEACHING SESSION) 3 TO 4 HOURS (You will only be required to deliver your session for 20 minutes) |
|--|---|---|--|

The PTLLS course will teach you how to develop valuable lessons and how to plan your teaching sessions. You will need to keep in mind the type of learners you may have in your class and how to deal with varying levels in one class. You will then deliver a complete lesson of 20 minutes on any topic of interest to you (micro teaching session) to a small group of learners while your tutor observes and takes notes. At the end of the session, you and the other learners in your group will be asked to evaluate your lesson.

You are able to complete this course in your own time and freedom so that you are able to achieve it as quickly as you like. However, there is a submission deadline of 1 month from the date of booking.

(You can get an extension in genuine cases. You will be asked for proof of the reason for extension.)

The cost of our teaching course is competitively priced at £349.

Please visit www.britishbeautygroup.co.uk for further details and to enrol onto this course or kindly email us on info@britishbeautygroup.co.uk.
