

Cara Lipsett

Inspired by the beauty of the Ottawa region, and the Algonquin Park region where she has shared a cottage for over 50 years, Cara explores light and shadow using acrylics on canvas and wood. Cara is a proud member of the Federation of Canadian Artists and has exhibited at the Federation Gallery since 2021 in person and on-line. Cara has been a part of the Glebe Fine Arts Show in Ottawa for the past several years, and was recently represented by the Artprior Gallery prior to its closure in May 2022. Cara has exhibited at the Buckhorn Fine Arts Festival, and several outdoor art events in and around Ottawa and the Bancroft, Ontario area. Cara recently retired from the Ottawa-Carleton District School Board where she taught full-time for over 32 years bringing the Arts to her students.
