

Artist Bio

Cara Lipsett is an Ottawa-based landscape painter whose vibrant acrylic canvases capture the dramatic movement of Canadian weather, sweeping cloudscapes, and the complex behavior of light reflecting on water. Deeply influenced by childhood summers spent exploring the wilderness near Algonquin Park, Lipsett focuses on translating the serene, atmospheric, and local qualities of the regional environment into her work. Following a dedicated 32-year career as an educator, she transitioned to a full-time studio practice, refining a highly intuitive, self-taught visual language characterized by layered textures and deep mood. Lipsett is an Elected Member of the Society of Canadian Artists (SCA) and an Active Member of the Federation of Canadian Artists. Her landscapes have been regularly exhibited at the Federation Gallery in Vancouver, the Kanata Civic Art Gallery, and Ottawa's annual Glebe Fine Art Show.
