Meet
Miller!

Miller was found as an injured stray in Hillsburgh. He has settled in well at the shelter and ready for his forever home! Miller would need a home that would give him time to settle in, and once he does, he shows you just how loving and playful he is. Please consider giving Miller a chance.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Join us at the Acton Leathertown Festival on Sunday August 11th. UCHS will be there with lots of items for sale and a raffle basket.

PAWS 2 WIN LOTTERY will be back this year!
Tickets will go on sale at the end of September.
Buy a ticket for $10 and get 31 chances to win.

Pip

Pip is a beautiful kitty, who came to UCHS in April 2024. She was living in a backyard colony. At the shelter, she LOVED her toys and enjoyed batting and playing with balls around the room.

AN UPDATE FROM PIP'S NEW FAMILY:

"She is the sweetest kitty I have ever had and so well behaved! She's a real sweetheart and everyone loves her! I am so happy she's part of our family. You all at UCHS were definitely a huge part of Pip being such a wonderful kitty. I want to thank you for your loving care of her."
