

MEET your hosts

Peter runs his own business working as a handman and Sharon runs her own business as a Nutritionist. Peter grew up in Greater London and both have grown up children, They have great involvement with the Scouts. Both are native English speakers.

Why host?

"It is a wonderful opportunity to embrace cultural diversity and create lasting connections across the globe. It allows my family to share our traditions, values, and daily life while learning about another culture first hand. This experience can enrich our lives and broaden our perspectives, "

THE ADKINS FAMILY

Peter (59 M)

Loves getting away in the campervan to find new hidden gems around the UK.

Sharon (55 F)

Enjoys experiencing new cultures and even attended the Eurovision in Sweden this year!

The Property

- Four bedroom home
- South facing garden
- Bus stop nearby with links to into London

MEET your hosts

Becky works full time in property in Essex and Jack works in London in Financial Technology. Jack grew up in London near Tower Bridge and Becky grew up in Greater London. Both are native English speakers.

THE ALLEN FAMILY

Becky (32 F)

Loves cooking and sharing food.
She also likes swimming in the sea.

Jack (30 M)

Likes keeping fit and runs several marathons a year.

Why host?

"My family has always welcomed guests to stay with us, I've grown up with Romanian, Bulgaria and Italian guests staying in our family home. It's really given me an appreciation of cultural exchange and mutual learning experience that can be shared by opening your home up and hosting".

The Property

- One single room
- One double room
- Pool table, bikes and roof terrace
- Sea Views
- Train station and bus stop across the road

MEET your hosts

Mel works full time from home as a Virtual PA and Matt works for Cambridge University - 2 days in the office and 3 days from home. Mel grew up in Rochford and Matt grew up in Woodford, moving to Rochford around 17 years ago for the country life. Both are native English speakers.

Why host?

"My parents (Mel) loved to host exchange students when I was a child and we, as children, loved meeting them and showing them our lovely town. I have two children aged 11 and 10 and I know they would love to do the same."

THE POOLE FAMILY

Mel (47 F)

Loves helping others and planning fun outings with the children. Enjoys going to the cinema.

Matt (47 M)

Has a new found love of gardening. Is an Apple guru and the home IT expert.

The Property

- One double room with PlayStation
- Large kitchen/dining space for hanging out
- Bus stop across the road
- Village feel with a local market on a Tuesday

