

College Scholarships

These are college scholarships that I found through my exhaustive search for Zoe to go to college debt free. I realized there is no database for minorities to find scholarships. God has blessed me to be able to create one for my child, so I dare not keep this to myself. Please share with as many students that desire to put in the hard work to excel in their academics, participate in community service opportunities, and persevere in writing several essays. I have declared my child will go to college debt free, owing no man nothing but to love him. John 14:12-14

If the scholarship is green, it is not income-based. It is a merit-based scholarship.
