

SHORT POEMS BY DR. KIRTHI KAKADE

My Heart feels light when I seek love more than fight.
When innocence outshines from those glimmering eyes When care is what we share
And communications of silent stares.

My heart
feels light to live alike smiles together and whisper all night

My heart
Feels light with the warmth when held tight.
All the giggles
that tickles my throat
In those memories of delight.

Walk carefully
For every step you take Shall not let your past debate Feel free feel one
With unity & fun
To just let go something never won.
Many a times
there is a lot of white noise inside my head Want some melody
to feel alright

Enjoy my silence
and listen in delight Wanting my day to pass without any fright Dancing in glory of time and light.
