Not the Other Coins: 2027 Designs

Not all the final decisions are in yet, but most of the coins designs are set for 2027. The United States Mint will kick off a four-year program featuring youth sports on America's quarters. The inaugural year features baseball, golf, soccer, softball, and snowboarding on five quarter reverses. The common obverses for youth sports quarters feature a new portrait of George Washington in civilian attire at a three-quarter angle.

For 2027, the half dollar will show President John F. Kennedy gazing skyward with a warm and hopeful expression on its obverse. Reverse for the 50-cent coin will be wheelchair basketball for Paralympics.

There is no final decision on the Native American dollar design, but the Omaha Native Susan La Flesche Picotte will be honored. She was the first Native American female doctor and established the first private hospital on a reservation in 1913. She promoted health, temperance, land rights, and assimilation through Christianity and education. The first is favored by the CCAC and I like the second. Oregon, Kansas, West Virginia, and Nevada will choose topics for the Innovation dollar. These $1 coin designs were unanimously approved by CCAC and very likely to be made. The first from Oregon is a beloved children's book author and second is one of the inventors of the microchip. West Virginia chose the radio telescope named after Robert C. Byrd in the West Virginia mountains. And the best for last Nevada will be honoring levis jeans as copper-riveted clothing so as not to use a trademark or name.

It is unclear if the CCAC has voted, but these are listed as the favorite designs. The Nevada designs are:

CIT of ultrahigh relief fame has made an Asia coin after their Europe coin. Perth Mint has gone all pink with pink gold and pink diamond on their Kimberly Sunset coin and an colorized Emu.

The Federal Reserve's 2027 printing order calls for no new $2 notes and sharply limited $50 production, even as demand for paper currency grows, making any Trump signature rare in those 2027 denominations his signature will be on.

Gdansk Mint of Poland has been making a nice fantasy series of silver medals based on The Witcher books and movies for Niue, lots of knights and monsters. Canada and Australia have their kilo coins in gold and silver out. Almost as struck denarius of Marc Anthony and Octavian (the future Caesar Augustus at 21 or 22). Note the shaggy hair, long sideburns and short beard. Probably his first facial hair. Facial hair was considered unseemly by the Romans, so he is trying to look like a tough barbarian. A very nice Elizabeth gold sovereign (MS62). She's enthroned reverse has crest in rose with Psalms 118:23 This is the Lord's doing, and it is wonderful in our eyes.

Spectacularly toned Victoria wedding 1858 medal stolen by the Russians in WWII and just returned.

Cameo proof Barber quarter, 1910P, PCGS PR65. Mintage of only 551 coins. Rich golden hues in the centers of both sides surrounded by vibrant purple.

Spain, Fernando and Isabel, 1474-1504. 10 Excelentes, Segovia. Struck after 1497. FERNANDUS ET HELISABET: D: G: REX: ET: REGINA: CASTL: crowned and draped busts facing, value X between, cross of five left, F behind queen, aqueduct above, rev: crowned shield of arms over eagle. Psalm 17:8 Protect us, Lord, under the shadow of your wings. What do 38 dogs, 32 pigeons, 4 horses, and 1 cat have in common? They're all recipients of the Dickin Medal, the highest award an animal can receive for military service

1938 Columbia 1 gold peso celebrating the foundation of Bogota Columbia 1538 by Gonzalo Jiménez de Quesada lawyer and conquistador, seeker of El Dorado, and likely model for Don Quixote. He is in medallion with angels on either side. The reverse is an etching of the painting by Pedro Alcántara Quijano Montero Allegory of the Foundation of Bogota depicting the first mass between the Spaniards and Native Muisca. A wonderful use of color and engraving by the American Banknote Company.

Viet Nam 5000 Dong 1951 note, highest denomination in series, Ho Chi Ming on front.
