

ARTICLE IV INSURANCE

4.1 Association Coverage. The Association shall carry fire and extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief and liability insurance, and workmen's compensation insurance, if applicable, pertinent to the ownership, use and maintenance of the Common Elements of the Condominium, Fidelity Bond coverage for the members of the Board and any management agent who has access to and authority over any monies received by or payable to the Association, Directors and Officers Liability coverage, and such other insurance as the Board of Directors deems advisable, and all such insurance shall be carried and administered in accordance with the following provisions:

A. Respective Responsibilities. All such insurance shall be purchased by the Association for the benefit of the Association, the Co-owners and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear; and provision shall be made for the issuance of certificates of mortgagee endorsements to the mortgagees of Coowners. Each Co-owner must obtain additional insurance upon his Unit and for other liability herein addressed, at their own expense, in addition to the coverage carried by the Association. It shall be each Co-owner's responsibility to determine by personal investigation or from his own insurance advisors the nature and extent of insurance coverage adequate to his needs, and thereafter to obtain insurance coverage for the interior of the Unit, personal property located within a Unit or elsewhere in the Condominium, as well as for all improvements and betterments to the Unit and Limited Common Elements, and for personal liability and property damage for occurrences within a Unit or upon Limited Common Elements appurtenant to a Unit for which the Co-owner is responsible pursuant to Article N of the Master Deed, and also for alternative living expense in event of fire or other casualty, and finally for any liability imposed upon the Co-owner and his insurer by Subsection E of this Section. It is expressly agreed that the Association shall have absolutely no responsibility for obtaining such coverages. The Association as to all policies it obtains and all Co-owners as to all policies they obtain shall use their best efforts to see that all property and liability insurance carried by the Association or any Co-owner shall contain appropriate provisions whereby the insurer waives its right of subrogation as to any claims against any Co-owner or the Association.

Insuring Of Common Elements. All Common Elements of the Condominium shall be insured against fire and other perils covered by a standard extended coverage endorsement, in an amount equal to the maximum insurable replacement value, excluding foundation and excavation costs, as determined annually by the Board of Directors of the Association in consultation with its appropriate professional advisors. Such coverage may also include, strictly as secondary coverage, interior walls within any Unit and the pipes, wires, conduits and ducts contained therein and may further include all fixtures, equipment, doors and trim within a Unit which were furnished with the Unit as standard items, in accord with the plans and specifications for the Project on file with the City of Detroit, or such replacements thereof as do not exceed the cost of such standard items. It shall be the responsibility of each Co-owner to determine the necessity for and to obtain insurance coverage for all fixtures, equipment, trim and other items or attachments within the Unit or any Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto whether installed originally by the Developer or subsequently by a Co-owner, and the Association shall have absolutely no responsibility whatsoever for obtaining such coverage unless agreed specifically and separately between the co-owner and Association in writing.

Cost of Insurance. All premiums for insurance purchased by the Association pursuant to these Bylaws shall be expenses of administration.

Proceeds Of Insurance Policies. Proceeds of all insurance policies owned by the Association shall be received by the Association, held in a separate account and distributed to the Association, the Co-owners and their mortgagees as their interests may appear; provided, however, whenever repair or reconstruction of the Condominium shall be required as provided in Article V of these Bylaws, the proceeds of any insurance received by the Association as a result of any loss requiring repair or reconstruction shall be applied for such repair or reconstruction, and in no event shall hazard insurance proceeds be used for any purpose other than for repair, replacement or reconstruction of the Condominium unless all of the institutional holders of first mortgages on Units in the Condominium have given their prior written approval.

Determination of Primary Carrier. It is understood that there may be overlapping coverage between the Co-owners' policies and those of the Association, as required to be carried pursuant to this Article. In situations where both coverages/policies are applicable to a given loss, the provisions of this subsection shall control in determining the primary carrier. In cases of property damage to the Unit and its contents, any other Unit, or a Limited Common Element or other element or property for which the Co-owner is assigned responsibility for maintenance, repair and replacement pursuant to the provisions of Article IV of the Master Deed (including improvements and betterments), the Co-owner's policy/carrier shall be deemed to be the primary carrier. In cases of property damage to the General Common Elements or a Limited Common Element for which the Association is assigned responsibility for maintenance, repair and replacement pursuant to the provisions of Article IV of the Master Deed, the Association's policy/carrier shall be deemed to be the primary carrier.

In cases of liability for personal injury or otherwise, for occurrences in/on the Unit or in/upon a Limited Common Element for which the Co-owner is assigned responsibility for maintenance, repair and replacement pursuant to the provisions of Article IV of the Master Deed (including improvements and betterments), the Co-owner's policy/carrier shall be deemed to be the primary carrier. In cases of liability for personal injury or otherwise, for occurrences in/on the General Common Elements or in/upon a Limited Common Element for which the Association is assigned responsibility for maintenance, repair and replacement pursuant to the provisions of Article IV of the Master Deed (including improvements and betterments), the Association's policy/carrier shall be deemed to be the primary carrier. In all cases where the Association's policy/carrier is not deemed the primary policy/carrier, if the Association's policy/carrier contributes to payment of the loss, the Association's liability to the Co-owner shall be limited to the amount of the insurance proceeds, and shall not in any event require or result in the Association paying or being responsible for any deductible amount under its policies. In cases where the Co-owner's policy is deemed primary for the purpose of covering losses where the damage is incidental or caused by a General Common element or the repair or replacement thereof, the insurance carrier of the Co-owner shall have no right of subrogation against the Association or its carrier.

4.2 Association as Attorney-in-Fact. Each Co-owner, by ownership of a Unit in the Condominium Project, shall be deemed to appoint the Association as his true and lawful attorney-in-fact to act in connection with all matters concerning the maintenance of fire and extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief, liability insurance and workmen's compensation insurance, if applicable, pertinent to the Condominium Project, his Unit and the Common Elements thereof and such insurer as may, from time to time, provide such insurance for the Condominium Project. Without limitation on the generality of the foregoing, the Association as said attorney shall have full power and authority to purchase and maintain such insurance, to collect and remit premiums therefor, to collect proceeds and to distribute the same to the Association, the Co-owners and respective mortgagees, as their interests may appear (subject always to the Condominium Documents), to execute releases of liability and to execute all documents and to do all things on behalf of such Co-owner and the Condominium as shall be necessary or convenient to the accomplishment of the foregoing.

4.3 Indemnification. Each individual Co-owner shall indemnify and hold harmless every other Co-owner and the Association for all damages and costs, including attorneys' fees, which such other Co-owners or the Association may suffer as a result of defending any claim arising out of an occurrence on or within such individual Co-owner's Unit or appurtenant Limited Common Elements and shall carry insurance to secure this indemnity if so required by the Association. This Section 3 shall not be construed to give any insurer any subrogation right or other right or claim against any individual Co-owner.
