COMMUNION & MISSIONS SUNDAY

It's February, and in this month when we celebrate love, it's good for us to remember how much Jesus must love us... to save us.

As we come to the Communion table this Sunday morning;

*Let's do what Jesus told us to do,
"Do This in Remembrance of Me."*

Let's always remember how much, Jesus loves us and how much He's done for us!

This Mornings Sermon:

The Gospel of Luke, Chapter 1. In that chapter, we see the interaction between the angel Gabriel and Mary. As a starting point we are looking at the message Gabriel gave to Mary.

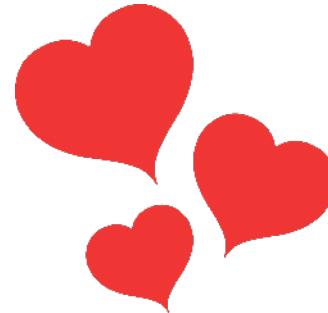

Gabriel says, 'He shall be Great!'

SUNDAY EVENING @ 6 PM

Tonight we will sing a bit, and then we will take down the Christmas decorations.

We were going to do this last Sunday night, but because of the bad weather, we moved it to tonight.

So, if you can come and help, we would sure appreciate it!

GOD BLESS AND KEEP OUR MISSIONARIES

The Lord Jesus knows of our faithful monthly support to all of our full time missionaries around the world. They are depending on our continued support each and every month.

It is a good thing that we all work together to support them and pray for them! Praise God!

TEACHERS MEETING THIS MORNING

After Morning service there will be a Teachers meeting to go over the new curriculum. We will meet in the Music Room for a short meeting.

If you are a Teacher please make your way there quickly and we can get started. Thank you!

MID-WEEK WORSHIP @ 7 PM

On Wednesday nights, we have picked up looking at the tragic story of Cain.

The story of Cain, gives us an example of someone, who had a good start but ended so terribly.

Let's learn the stories and more than that, let's learn, from their stories, both the good and the bad.

It is so good to get back into, this study on Wednesday evenings, looking at the bad example of Cain. What can we learn from his mistakes?
