Egregia Louise,

We are deeply saddened by the loss of Andy Pampuro and extend our heartfelt condolences to you and your family. All your brothers and sisters of OSDIA Napa Lodge #2043 stand in solidarity with you during this difficult time.

Andy's unwavering commitment to the Order and his countless contributions to our community through the publication of our newspaper, Il Leone, will never be forgotten. We recognize his immense passion, generosity, and loving personality. We are grateful for his many years of service to our organization.

We understand how much Andy meant to you, and we hope that you find solace in the knowledge that he passed away surrounded by the love of his extended family. May the outpouring of love and support from our community, combined with the cherished memories you hold close to your heart, provide comfort and strength as you navigate this profound loss.

You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. We are here for you whenever you need us.

Cordiali Saluti,

Marisa Miller
