

Magic 101

CANDLE MAGIC

Magic is a form of divination for pulling divine and universal energies to help bring forth intervention of spiritual knowledge and guidance into our lives. One can implement this by lighting certain candles to help manifest energies into their life path. Some individuals are drawn to candle divination while others are not. I use it only for protection and aiding in removal of negative energies and sometimes for long distance healings or universal knowledge. Christian or Catholic may not feel comfortable with this type of candle magic and that is perfectly normal. If one feels like this is not for them then they are more likely drawn to a different path. Magic is neither good nor bad. It is the way we choose to use it.

WICCAN 101

Wiccan tradition is neither good nor bad. It is how we choose to use it. Do we use it for good intentions or for our selfish needs. This is entirely up to the person implementing the magical endeavor. Wiccan's use rituals and honor holidays known as sabbaths. Wiccans also known as Witches are not all evil like some may think they are. Wiccan is no more than another form of religion that one is raised up with. Not understanding this or being ignorant and not accepting them as an equal is blasphemous. We all are brought up under certain ways of beliefs by our parents and no one should be outcasted from their beliefs. Our souls chose the incarnation upon birth so please don't be one of those ignorant individuals that think they are better than someone else just because they believe in one God and/or Jesus Christ.

SELFISH INTENSIONS

Never use candle magic for self-centered intentions. This will only draw in negative demonic energies around you. The more one uses magic for selfish reasons the more Karma they stack up against themselves and the harder it is to work it off. This refers to love spells, a curse, or any other spell that would involve another person besides yourself. Doing so will only bring Karma back onto you, the individual casting the spell.

LAW OF MAGIC

Never use magic to interfere with another's life path, or one will receive consequences for their actions.

USE OF MAGIC

Always use magic to help individuals or to attract abundance to you. Like increasing your chances for a job interview to benefit you. This doesn't mean striking it big in a lottery. We as incarnations go through life challenges and experiences to learn and grow from them. We may not understand why we go through certain situations or trauma in life, but it's necessary for one's soul growth.

IS MAGIC FOR WITCH'S / WICCAN'S ONLY

NO. One can implement magic for themselves. You don't need to join a coven or participate in wiccan sabbaths. The doorway for all religions has opened. One just needs to believe in magic for good intention and not for one's own selfishness.

WHITE VS BLACK MAGIC

White magic is for protection, guidance, spiritual knowledge. White magic calls upon the universal energies, such as all realms, upper world, and lower worlds, etc.

Black magic is of self-centered intentions and draws in negative and/or demonic energies to aid and assist in your intention. Be very careful with your intentions because black magic never makes one happy despite the bull crap these entities tell you. Satan is all about himself and doesn't care about you. He is only out to gain control of your soul and to distract you from your life path's purpose on earth.
