

Cracker Jack

Greg Thompson brings to life Cracker Jack, a banjo-playing, singing comedy cowboy who's sure to delight audiences of all ages.

With a warm, playful style and a repertoire that spans Americana, country favorites, and novelty kids' songs, Cracker Jack is the perfect addition to any fair or festival.

Cracker Jack is a strolling act, wirelessly amplified to easily entertain large crowds without being tied to a stage. He can perform just about anywhere — making him ideal for pre-shows, midway entertainment, or surprise pop-up performances that keep your guests smiling.

For the kids, he regularly gives out little plastic "lucky horses" as prizes for correctly answering such difficult questions like "How old are you?" or "What is your favorite color?"

Whether it's toe-tapping tunes, lighthearted humor, or simply spreading cowboy cheer, Cracker Jack makes your event unforgettable!
