Subject: The Helper's Curse

Greetings All,

I recently spoke with a student that was spiritually attacked after providing ministry for a new recipient. She had prayed the set-up and closing prayers and was surprised to have been attacked so badly after the meeting. I immediately recognized her experience as the Helper's Curse. She asked me to share the prayer I covered with her.

The Helper's Curse goes into effect if a survivor receives help from prayer ministers or therapists that try to help them. Sometimes it is activated by internal occult parts releasing witchcraft, other times it is simply a witchcraft curse activated by healing prayer. This curse is not something the presenting SRA personality is aware of, but it can go into effect with the first ministry meeting.

To break the curse, you can pray something like this:

“In the name of Jesus Christ, by his power and authority, I break the Helper's Curse. Every negative spoken word, witchcraft spell and demonic assignment released against me, will now break under the blood of Jesus Christ. I bind the demons assigned to attack me and the ministry and cast them to the feet of Jesus Christ. I forgive and release the sender from my judgment. I pray blessings of continued healing and restoration over _____, in the name of Jesus Christ.”

May the Lord give you discernment, wisdom and peace as you serve those coming out of darkness into God's marvelous light!
