

The Tulip Festival 1939 Film

The Historic Port of Washington invites you to experience the historic Tulip Festival Parade at The Turnage on Sunday afternoon, June 9. Doors open at 1pm with gallery historic exhibits, the film begins at 2pm. Come hear the history of the Dutch migration to Beaufort County over 100 years ago to Terra Ceia. You will hear from descendants of these Dutch farmers who began migrating from Holland in the early 1900s, many escaping the Nazi regime. The Tulip Festival honored and celebrated these hardworking families annually for five years until the breakout of World War II. Tickets ($15) can be purchased online at ArtsOfThePamlico.org or in person at The Turnage.
