Today's Message — "Hearing and Doing"

Luke 10:25-42: God wants us to hear and obey his Word. Our hearing of God's Word is easily hindered by excuses that enable us to live in disobedience by not actually doing what Scripture says and by many distractions that make it difficult for us to be still and listen. It takes discernment to know when we are to "go and do" and when we are to "sit and be still."

Reflection Questions

1. Are you more prone to make excuses to not obey God's Word or are you more prone to be too distracted to hear God's Word? What can you do to change this?
1. Is there someone in your life who you can show compassion to? How would you go about doing that?

Announcements

Children in Worship: We plan to begin offering a children's service during our morning worship once a month. Andrea will be leading a training session for teachers & helpers on June 22, 7:00 pm. If you plan to attend, let her know by June 21.

Lord' Supper: After discussing whether or not we should take the Lord's Supper more frequently, the council has decided to keep our current practice of taking the Lord's Supper once a month.
