OUR NEXT INTERIM PASTOR

July 1—September 24

My name is Jim Vander Slik, born in 1945 in Kalamazoo, MI, into a Christian family with one brother and sister. I attended the CRC and Christian schools all my life. I served in the US Army for three years and graduated with a Business Administration degree from Western Michigan University. I married the love of my life at age 24, Marjorie (Westra), and God blessed us with three children, Cristine, William and James II.

At age 37-42, I attended Calvin Seminary and then served three churches during my brief 23-year ministry career, Kedvale Avenue (Chicago), Sunlight Community (Port St. Lucie, FL), and Modesto CRC (California). My Marjorie passed away in November 2022 from cancer.
