

Dear Church Family,

We met last Sunday and discussed several things.

First, we are going to take the evening service in a different direction. Starting in the fall, we are going to have an evening service once a month instead of every week. It will be at the traditional time of 5:30 pm. The service will take place in the fellowship hall where we will have a discussion on a new topic each month.

Second, we are looking for two Sunday school teachers for the fall to teach ages 3-5 and 6-8. Please contact a council member if you feel led to serve in this capacity.

Our next council meeting will be on August 15 at 8 am.

Sincerely,
Your Council

Today's Message

"Do Not Worry"

Luke 12:22-48 - Living as a faithful resident in God's kingdom involves doing what God values. Primarily, this means not placing ultimate value in things or people that will only put us in a state of worry and being faithful to God rather than abusing the various responsibilities God has given us.

Reflection Questions:

1. What are you anxious or worrying about? What would it look like for you to rely on God and his fatherly care for you instead of obsessing what you ultimately have no control over?
2. How did you respond to Jesus' imagery of cutting up the abusive servant and placing them with the unfaithful? Can you identify with this servant? Why or why not?

Join us in Prayer for...

- ♥ The family of Ida Faye Cutler who died this week.
- ♥ Safe travels for Holly VS and her extended family as they travel Saturday for a reunion.
- ♥ David S who is excited by the possibility of early release.
- ♥ Andrea S's mother is going for a consult for her surgery to correct her double vision. We are thankful that the surgery is finally scheduled.
- ♥ Troy H who is back to work! Pray that his stitches will be removed shortly.
- ♥ Brenda, Gerda R's neighbor, who will have her second hip replacement surgery.
- ♥ Jan DH's biopsy came back cancer free. Praise the LORD!
