21 DAYS OF PRAYER: PROMPTS

Week 1, January 15-22

Read Ephesians 5:18-20

- Are you ready to live into the plans God has for you?
- May you be filled with the fullness of God regardless of your circumstances.

Week 2, January 22-29

Read Romans 15:13

- May you experience hope and joy today...
- Share it with others in your circle of influence.

Week 3, January 29-February 5

Read 2 Corinthians 1:21-22

- Let this be a "wow" thought for your day.
- God is completing in you what He started!

GOT QUESTIONS?

The teen Sunday School class has plenty of good questions and will be learning through them over the next weeks. We asked what questions they had about God, faith, the Bible, the church, or the Christian life; here's a sampling of what they came up with:

- ✦ Why should we read Leviticus and Numbers?
- ✦ What is your advice for living a Christian life even through difficult times and when worry and questioning take over?
- ✦ What's the difference between Christian and Catholic?
- ✦ In war does the killing count as murder to God, or is it justified by the war?
- ✦ Is vulgar language as bad as using God's name in vain?
- ✦ Besides the sun, moon, and earth, why did God create the rest of the universe?
- ✦ How should I remember to keep the 10 Commandments?

And here's a stumper:

- ✦ Do babies go to Heaven and if so, how old can you be before that "free pass" is up?

Maybe you'd like to think about these questions, too. What answers do you come up with?
