Rejoicing Always in God Who Always Provides

And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Philippians 4:19-20

I will rejoice and give thanks to “my God” as I live each day.

- “My God” expresses faith in an extraordinarily personal way.
- “My God” revealed himself in creation, performed all the miracles in the Bible, and is the God who will “meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.”

I will rejoice and give thanks that my God “will provide” everything I need.

- From the very beginning of creation, God’s people have always experienced the provident graces of God.
- The story of God’s provident graces deepens our awareness that He has already provided what we most desperately needed – a substitute sacrifice for our sins.

I will rejoice and give thanks to my God that he will always provide what I need “according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.”

- I will always rejoice in the surprising ways that God provides for my every need.
- I will always rejoice in God’s incomprehensible desire to come and live with me.

If anyone loves me, my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

John 14:23

I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have the power . . . to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ . . . that you may be filled full with all the fullness of God.

Ephesians 3:16-19
