Dictators, Dreams, and the Dominion of God Sermon Series on Daniel

I plan to preach four sermons on Daniel, chapters 1,2,7 and 9. The thread that I will be pulling on is the way that the empires of the world look so big in this book, and the people of the Lord, through whom all nations will be blessed, look so small, yet through it all the promise of God's kingdom stands. This Sunhday's message:

Daniel 1:1-21 In the World But Not of It

This all started during advent when I was drawn to pay particular attention to the fact that there are many angels in the Bible, but only two are named. So, we are specifically told that the angel who spoke to Zechariah and to Mary in Luke 1 was Gabriel. Why do we need to know that? We need to know that because God wants us to connect those announcements to what the same Gabriel told Daniel in ch's 8 and 9. That's what got me to do a lot of reading in Daniel, and about Daniel, for the last few weeks.

Groundwork: The Biblical Meaning of Forgiveness

Telling someone to forgive is easy. Actually offering forgiveness can be a lot more difficult. Join Groundwork as we study Exodus 34:4-9, Matthew 6:12-15, Psalm 51:1-9, Hebrews 4:14-16, Colossians 1:9-14, and 1 John 1:5-10 to discuss the biblical concept of forgiveness by beginning with God's forgiveness and what it teaches us about God's character.
